The Flowers Come To 50th Milestone

By MARIE ADAMS
THE McClintock clan will gather en masse tomorrow evening to do honor to Mr. and Mrs. John Franklin Flowers who are celebrating their golden wedding anniversary on Wednesday. The 50-year bride is the former Laura Elizabeth (Beth) McClintock, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McClintock.

A local newspaper clipping of Jan. 1, 1907, describes the wedding in the First Presbyterian Church as "one of the prettiest weddings that has taken place in Charlotte this season." The story goes on to say of the bride, "She is a cultured and charming young woman and has a wide circle of friends." The bridegroom "is one of the best-known and best-liked young men of the city."

Nieces Giving Party

THE anniversary party is being given by the nieces of Mr. and Mrs. Flowers—with their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Rubie Hatcher, at whose home, 600 Hempstead Pl., the party is being given: Mrs. Robert Hovis, Mrs. John McNeill, Mrs. B. B. Culp and Mrs. James Mullen of Gastonia, Mrs. James Rankin of Greensboro, Mrs. Joseph F. Wycke of Whiteville, and Mrs. James Huntley of Lumberton, Mr. and Mrs. Al Browne and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fender, kindfolk are joining the group of hosts. Mr. and Mrs. Banks McClintock and Mr. and Mrs. J. Lafiner McClintock, the latter couple of Washington, D. C., brothers and sisters-in-law of Mrs. Flowers, will welcome the guests at the door. Mr. and Mrs. Hatcher will head the receiving line—in which will stand several of the "bride's" attendants, including her sister, Mrs. D. G. Calder of Gastonia, the former Margie Belle McClintock, who was her maid of honor; Mrs. J. M. Renfrow; Mrs. Anna Morrison Wilson and Mrs. Charles R. Nisbet, the former Freida Dotger, bridesmaids.

Decorations In Gold

BOWLS of yellow roses and other floral arrangements will carry out the golden theme. A cloth of gold will cover the dining room table, where coffee, punch, sandwiches and cakes will be served. Mrs. H. Flynn Wolfe will keep the register.
Mrs. L. E. Brown and Mrs. C. Watson will preside at the coffee service and punch bowl. Mr. and Mrs. Flowers met at the home of Mrs. Brown, the former Ona Lee Rodman. Assisting in serving will be members of the younger generation of the family: Miss Marshall McClintock of Spartanburg, S. C., Misses Elton and Janet Rankin of Greensboro, Miss Jeanie Hovis, Misses Ann and Susan McClintock, Miss Merrie Jane Brown and Mrs. Harry Wolfe.

Visitors Come And Go

THE Donald Blacks (Elizabeth Wilson) and daughter, Diane, of Pittsburgh, left Friday for Jacksonville, Fla., after several days' visit with Libba's mother, Mrs. T. C. Wilson at her home on Kenilworth Ave. They arrived in town the day after Christmas. Accompanying the visitors to Florida were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wilson and Diana Wilson of Charlotte, brother and sisters of Mrs. Black. They attended the Pitt-Ga. Tech Gator Bowl game in Jacksonville Saturday and all will spend two weeks vacationing in Florida before returning. The Blacks will again stop for a short stay here en route home.

Coming over tonight from Gastonia for the New Year's Eve dinner dance at the Myers Park Club will be Mr. and Mrs. William Weller Jr., who will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Shelton at their home on Sterling Rd.

Appointed by the U. S. State Department to set up medical centers throughout Europe for American civilians is Dr. Norman Boyer of Brevard. He sailed Saturday with his family for Cypress where they will be located for two years.

Dr. Boyer is a brother of Mrs. Fred Titlow of 2300 Whiting Ave., and a nephew of Mrs. Alex Norman of 2021 The Plaza.

Home Trend Brings The Outdoors Inside

Architectural and home building trends today are bringing the outdoors in to every room of our homes. Fabric and wallpaper designers have kept pace with the builders, and the whole outdoors world may be seen on lovely cottons and linens, and on the new sheer man-made fabrics such as fortisan and bamborg.

One of these fabric and wallpaper designers, known in the fashion world as scarf designer Vera, began several years ago to capture the woodland ferns and leaves and foliage of every kind in fresh, new, simplified drapery designs.

Her decorating textiles hold an established place in modern designers' work. Her designs are hand-screen printed on thousands of yards of fabric and wallpaper at their studio and plant at Ossining. Today, besides using the countryside around their studio at Ossining, N. Y., Vera and her husband, George Neumann, go traveling by car, boat, and plane for new inspiration. Museums, scenic wonders of the world, many other inspirations supply her drawing board with ideas.

Colors in these fabrics inspire any homemaker to refresh her rooms. Fine green mustard seed, copper ore, oatmeal, marine blue, topaz and bronze are a few of the backgrounds.

MRS. MARK PARKS JOHNSON JR. was married to Lt. Johnson Sunday, Dec. 23, in the Presbyterian Church at Chapel Hill. The bride is the former Linda Poe Irvine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Elliott Irvine of Durham. Lt. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark P. Johnson of 917 Berkeley Ave., Charlotte, is serving with the U. S. Air Force and is stationed at Ellington AFB, Houston, Texas.

Miss Champion Takes Vows With Jesse Watts

Homemaker Hints
Ceramic Tile Lends Unusual Air To Home

One deceptively simple way to lend a touch of elegance to the patterned homes of twentieth-century America is to ornament them with works of art. This is neither costly nor hard to find. One likely answer is ceramic tile. Both glazed and unglazed tiles are miniature masterpieces of color and texture. Ceramic tile is as pleasing in cost as in appearance.

TILE AND ETERNITY
During family discussion of plans for resurfacing kitchen counters consider the number of times replacement has been necessary. Then consider the color scheme of your kitchen—if it is one. Lastly think of the cleaning and maintenance required by the existing material. Ceramic tile fills the bill on all these points. It is a permanent, colorful and durable material that will end your kitchen counter surfacing troubles.

Add a dress-up touch to cream-style corn with some sliced ripe olives and a bit of celery seed.

Pope Vow Received
Close To A Million
VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII is estimated to have received a million persons this year in audiences.

This has been one of the busiest years of the "ope's" reign and the 80-year-old head of the Roman Catholic Church enjoyed his best health in several years. He delivered more than 200 major speeches and his Christmas message to the world.

A LOVELIER YOU

By Mary Sue Miller

LOVELINESS EXTRA. For a loveliness fillip on this enchanted evening, try using this eye make-up:

Apply shadow, in contrasting shade to eyes, along lids from center to outer corners and blend. Then place sparing dots of cream rouge (eyes, rouge) in hollows between inside corners and nose; press into skin until merest trace remains. Last, flick up far corners with soft pencil lines and whisk up lashes with mascara.

What's the effect? Enhanced coloring, size and sparkle—more come hither!

MAKE-UP MAKE-BELIEVE
Facial flaws both large and small can be repaired by make-up. How to give the illusion of perfection to imperfect features is detailed in my leaflet, "MAKE-UP MAKE-BELIEVE." To obtain a copy, write to me in care of this newspaper, enclosing a LARGE, SELF-ADDRESSED, STAMPED ENVELOPE and five cents in coin.
