

Thomas L. Robinson ... President and Publisher
Brody S. Griffith ... General Manager
Robert H. Lampe ... Advertising Director
Cecil Prince ... Associate Editor
R. L. Young Jr. ... Managing Editor
Huey Stinson ... Circulation Manager
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1956

The Stage Is Set In East Germany For World War III

By THE ALSOPS

A SERIOUS study of Soviet Premier Bulganin's Nov. 23 letter to President Eisenhower...

Bulganin and Eisenhower: More Than An Exchange Of Pleasantries

SERIOUS PROPOSAL

But the letter also contained what seemed to be a serious proposal for a mutual 500-mile withdrawal of all armed forces from a demarcated East-West frontier.

HIGH LEVEL STUDY

It was the President himself, after a hurried briefing, who caught the significance of the Bulganin proposal...

SETHING FERMENT

The danger was greatest when thousands of Germans in West Berlin demonstrated against the Soviet bloodbath in Hungary...

After Living In A Cork Hut, Even Hyenas Are Welcome

By ROBERT C. RUARK

TABORA, Tanganyika - Africa is my wife in the cork huts. The cork huts are the business, that is. And I can't stand it any longer, so I ran away.

FABRICANTE

We had to get new passports lately, and when we filled out the forms you can bet she didn't put down 'Housewife'...

DON'T MENTION IT

I got a favor to ask. If you happen to run into this product, please, please, don't buy any.

Orwell's 'Newspeak' Language Of The Future?

THE purpose of Newspeak was not only to provide a dumb-dumb expression to the world view and mental habits proper to the devotees of Ingso.

Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round

THE new administration trend toward lining up with the Afro-Asian axis and letting Western allies, if necessary, drop out of the cause.

Warnings Sounded

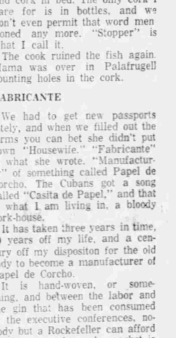

Gruenther, as military leader of NATO, has always been a staunch supporter of Western Europe.

minism government would almost instantly cease to exist

When the Hungarian rebellion started at its height, East Germany very nearly went the way of Hungary.

'Pay No Attention To Rover. He Just Likes To Join In'

PROSPERTY and LIVING COSTS are the two main antagonists in the close world. There is no international border between the

HERBLOCK 8919E THE WASHINGTON POST

People's Platform

Letters should be brief. The writer's name and address must be given, but may be withheld from publication in the discretion of the editors.

Just What Is Wrong With Discrimination?

Dallas, Tex. 'CIVIL rights' laws have made it possible to discriminate against the white people of the nation.

Successor To Bilbo The Great Is Needed

Monroe S. L. Mironos has needed a good critic of the Negro since Bilbo the Great of Mississippi, who did more to wake the Negro than any man.

Can't Sit Still

When he took his titan-haired wife Nancy and their four children for a holiday in Georgia, the most people expected him to relax.

South: A Question At Clinton, Tenn.

REDUcing themselves to simple questions. This has happened in Clinton, Tenn. The complications are more numerous than are apparent in the press' inadequate reporting of what is a major test of a region's wisdom and flexibility.

A Stepchild Needs Uncle Sam's Help

IN A MOMENT of melancholy reflection, playwright Elmer Rice signed not long ago, "The greatest blow to the development of the theater in America was the dissolution of the Federal Theater Project."

Spirit Of 'Mrs. Santa Claus' Lives On

CHRISTMAS will still be Christmas for hundreds of Charlotte youngsters who learned to measure the merriens of the season by the warmth and generosity of Mrs. Dixie Housel, known far and wide as "Mrs. Santa Claus."

Rover's A Victim Of Our Times

ALL the victims of our urbanizing civilization, none is more pathetic than the subdivision dog. He is as much a part of the suburban scene as his owners, outdoor grills, mortgages, for when a man moves from an apartment to a place of his own on the outskirts of town, something deep and primitive within him calls out for a dog, usually on the pretense that it will play nice for the kids.

Doubts Raised About Dumping Allies

THE new administration trend toward lining up with the Afro-Asian axis and letting Western allies, if necessary, drop out of the cause.

HERBLOCK 8919E THE WASHINGTON POST

Good Neighbors Worry

Latin-American diplomats, accustomed to being the tail on the North American kite and sometimes a bit bitter about it, are scrutinizing the administration's lean toward the Afro-Asian axis with concern.