

Duke Conquers Fighting Tar Heel Quintet In Fast Game

3,000 See Carolina Aggregation Go Down In Defeat 36 - 14.

MARPET AND BROWN STAR

Duke Blue Devils defeated a fighting Tar Heel quintet 36-14 last night at the Tin Can before a crowd estimated at 3,000. The superior offensive and defensive play of the Blue Devils was evident throughout the game, although the scoring attack did not begin until the second half. In this part of the game the Duke cagers had things their way, and notwithstanding the loss of their star forward, "Chalky" Councillor, who was taken out on account of fouls, kept up a scoring attack that lasted until the final whistle.

Carolina scored first with a goal from the side line by Billy Brown, acting captain for the Tar Heels. Councillor soon answered this with a goal for Duke and a foul shot following netted the Duke three points and the lead. Marpet answered with a goal for Carolina, but three successive Duke goals ended the struggle for leadership, and never again during the game were the Blue Devils in fear of losing their lead.

The Duke system of fast offensive play was vindicated in the game last night, when the hitherto excellent Tar Heel defense was shattered long before the game ended. The Duke passing, on the whole, was accurate, and short shots were responsible for the large score.

The all-around play of Rogers and Werber was most outstanding for the Blue Devils, while the work of the veterans Marpet and Harper was most outstanding for the Tar Heels. Rogers was high scorer of the game with 11 points, and his teammates Werber and Croson tied for second place honors with 7 points each. Farleigh, Tar Heel sub, did good defensive work.

TAR BABIES LOSE TO DUKE FROSH

Blue Imps Fight Hard To Win 36-19 Score.

A well balanced, smooth working machine from Duke defeated a fighting Tar Baby quintet 36-19 in a thrilling encounter at the Tin Can last night before a capacity audience. The battle, which was the preliminary to the Carolina-Duke varsity game, gave the Blue Imps a strong lead in the race for state honors.

The Tar Babies were defeated but surely not disgraced. They fought to the last ditch, but they could not cope with the machine like perfection of the Blue Imps.

For the first 10 minutes the game was very close, the lead see-sawing back and forth between the two clubs, but the Imps started hitting on all cylinders and gradually increased the lead. Hill, the Imps' versatile center, started the scoring by sinking a beauty from the side-lines, but Lineberger evened the count by caging a long one; then first one team would grab the lead and then the other would even the count. At 8 all, the Imps went on a scoring rampage which lasted until the end of the half. The half ended 23-10.

With the opening of the second half, the Imps started going again and garnered 5 points before Dunn could break the ice for Carolina. Dunn and Lineberger then accounted for 6 straight points before Duke could score again. The action from this point on was slow, neither team seeming to find the basket. With about 7 minutes to go, the Imps went on a scoring bee garnering 8 points. The game ended 36-19.

Capilli, the Imps' diminutive forward, captured the scoring honors for the evening and was closely followed by Dunn, Carolina, and Hill, Duke, who scored 7 points each. For Carolina the most outstanding players were Lineberger and Dunn, while Capilli and Robertshaw starred for the Imps.

SIDELIGHTS by "Heinie"

CAROLINA'S INVITATION

to the Milrose track meet in New York is attracting an unusual amount of attention throughout the state. W. N. Cox, sports editor of the Greensboro Daily News, says that this is merely another one of the many recognitions given to Coach Bob for his work in developing outstanding track teams. Mr. Cox went further and stated that he had urged the nomination of Coach Bob as the southern representative to the Olympic Council last year. Nothing definite has come out of this suggestion but we hope that action will be taken in this' line at the proper time in the future.

COACH BOB

is now assisted in track by several of his former pupils. Coach Dale Ranson is the most active of these assistants and is really bearing the burden of the hard work in training the track men. Dale is one of the distinguished pupils of Coach Bob, for he won recognition as a stellar miler and captain of the 1925 track team. In addition to the track captaincy he was also leader of the cross country team of that year. Vernon Cowper, Dale's assistant, was one of the most outstanding pole-vaulters in the south last year and set a new high record of 12 feet 5 inches for the pole vault.

GALEN ELLIOTT

is one of Coach Bob's biggest boosts to the present hall of fame. Galen is now teaching and coaching track at Charlotte high school, but he has been in several important meets since he stopped setting records in college. While at Carolina, Galen was the most outstanding miler and half-miler in Southern Conference circles and certainly the most outstanding seen at U. N. C. in recent years. Since leaving Carolina, Galen has competed against such outstanding distance men as George Hahn and Ray Conger. In one meet Elliott ran a close second to Hahn, and has distinguished himself in almost every meet which he has entered. In the 1928 Olympic tryouts he finished well up in the crowd, but missed the team by a very small margin. According to many sports writers he will have a much better chance of making the Olympic team in 1932 than he did in 1928.

THE BIG FIVE

standings place Carolina in third place with a .500 average. Carolina has lost to Davidson and Duke, but has won from Wake Forest and N. C. State. "Duke leads the North Carolina teams with a clean slate of three wins and no losses. Davidson follows close-

TAR HEELS FACE HEAVY SCHEDULES

Winter Sports Teams Have Fourteen Contests In Week.

University athletic teams will face 14 contests during the coming week.

Northern tours by the varsity and freshman basketball teams, carrying four games for each quint, head the program. Both teams begin their campaigns on Wednesday night. The varsity faces four strong Southern Conference foes in V. P. I., Washington and Lee, Virginia and Maryland. The freshmen will meet the V. P. I. frosh, Augusta Military Academy, Woodberry Forest and Washington and Lee.

The southern championship Tar Heel varsity boxers and the freshmen will each face action twice. The boxers take on Duke's varsity and freshmen in the Tin Can here Tuesday night in the one event carded for Chapel Hill, and meet Virginia in Charlottesville on Saturday night.

The varsity wrestlers will meet Princeton at Princeton on Saturday night in their second big test of the season. A previous ambitious engagement was lost to Navy, but the Tar Heels have learned many things there.

The trackmen will see their first action of the new year when the picked mile-relay team goes to fill the Tar Heel engagement at the select Milrose Games in New York City on Saturday.

Only the freshmen wrestlers are without a contest.

The Tar Heels showed new life and punch in Big-Five battles with Wake Forest, N. C. State and Duke. They lost an early-season game, 27-17, to Washington and Lee, but the meeting with V. P. I., Virginia and Maryland will be the first of the year for the Tar Heels.

The boxers face in Duke and Virginia two of the strongest foes in the path of their retaining their Southern Conference title of two years. The Carolina-Duke boxing meet, to get under way here Tuesday night at 7:30, is expected to draw a large crowd.

ly but has accounted for only one game in the Big Five series. N. C. State has lost to Carolina and Duke, but won from Wake Forest. Wake Forest has lost all three of the games it has played. Carolina, Duke and State composed the Demon Deacons. The standings follow:

TEAM	W	L	PCT.
Duke	3	0	1.000
Davidson	1	0	1.000
Carolina	2	2	.500
N. C. State	1	2	.333
Wake Forest	0	3	.000

"GEORGIA" WINS OVER "VIRGINIA"

House, Nash, and Branch Oppose Magnier and Slusser In Game Between Mythical Teams.

Henry House, varsity back from the 1929 edition of the Tar Heels, crashed over the goal line yesterday afternoon at Kenan stadium to put the game on ice for the mythical "Georgia" team. The score was 6-0. A line buck for the extra point was unsuccessful.

The game was played in a pond of melting snow. The slush was so bad that it was almost impossible for the players to get a toe hold in the ground. They slipped around ends, slid through the line, and sometimes stood on their heads.

When one heard Johnny Branch calling signals and saw Jimmy Magnier tossing his bullet like passes, it reminded one of last fall. But yesterday the boys were not playing side by side; they were facing one another. Such men as Henry House, Captain Nash and Slusser and some of the others from last year's squad faced each other instead of being on the same team.

The longest run of the day was by Johnny Branch when he slipped and skidded around end for 23 yards. It looked like the Johnny Branch of old. Another time he received a punt and eluded every man, but the slick ground came up and hit him in the face. One must not forget next year's captain, Strud Nash. He got away for several nice gains and also came to the front when backing up the line.

The forward wall of the "Georgia" eleven seemed somewhat stronger than the mythical "Virginia" eleven, while the backfields of both teams appeared to be about equal.

One should not begin to pick outstanding stars for the players were so covered with snow and mud that they were hardly recognizable; but as far as the writer could see, it appeared that McDade, House and Nash were outstanding for the "Georgia" team and Magnier and Slusser and Underwood were outstanding for the "Virginia" eleven.

The lineups were as follows:

Georgia	Reid
Virginia	L. E.
Nelson	Smith
Oliver	L. T.

Reception For Wise

Following the talk by Dr. Stephen S. Wise of New York on Tuesday evening, a reception will be tendered him in the ballroom of the Carolina Inn. Dr. Wise will meet those present, and speak informally to the group. Faculty members and all students are invited by officials to attend the reception and meet the speaker.

MRS. C. E. WADDELL FETED

Mrs. C. E. Waddell, who has been house-mother at the Beta Theta Pi house for the past month, left last night. She is to be replaced by Mrs. C. H. Harding. At a dinner given last night in honor of Mrs. Waddell, a gift was given her by the chapter as a token of appreciation.

Be sure you're right, then go ahead. The applause doesn't matter, and besides it might never come anyway.—Lynchburg Daily Advance.
