Ovens Equipment Lack Nearly Stops Ayres

By HELEN PARKS
Charlotte News Staff Writer
The trip to the "Altars of the East" was almost canceled last night for lack of proper projection equipment at Ovens Auditorium. This was the first movie to be shown in the auditorium; and someone neglected to have on hand the arc light projector which was needed. The equipment that was used put the affair at the level of a high quality home movie. Producer Lew Ayres said the proper type equipment will be ready for tonight's showing.

Last night he left the decision whether to show the film up to the audience of less than 600. A trial 15-minute film was shown and the audience was satisfied that they wanted to see more so they were asked to move closer to the screen and the trip was on again.

Marine Ball Set Saturday

Marine reservists will hold their annual coronation ball to elect "Miss Charlotte Marine Reserve 1956" Saturday at 8 p. m. at the Marine Corps Reserve Training Center.

The queen will be chosen from 10 finalists by a panel of five judges.

The finalists are Vivian Sweetster, Gastonia; and Carolyn Mullis, Mecklenburg; L. Wright, Martha Alexander, Dot Beatty, Jackie Hart, Shirley McNeely, Janice Hudson, Francis Daugherty and Myrna Eardhardt, all of Charlotte.

Prizes, including a complete set of clothes donated by local merchants, will be awarded the winner. Gifts will also be given to the other finalists.

Plant Is Moved

By Western Union
Western Union of Charlotte has moved its local plant and engineering department from 215 N. Pine St. to 1200 Mint St., it was announced by Frank Farmer, superintendent.

E. S. Edwards, city foreman, said further expansion is seen by the company as telegraph facilities in Charlotte have increased 35 per cent. The local plant and engineering department is the largest of eight in North Carolina.

The drill team of the Third Cargo Company will stage a marching demonstration beginning at 8.30. Music will be presented by Doug Hill and "Big Bill" Ward, local TV announcer, will be master of ceremonies.

Davidson Student Wins Harvard Prize

Robert P. Cumming, of Davidson, a Harvard College junior, has been awarded the Harvard Monthly Prize for 1955-56. The prize is sustained by the income from a special fund and is awarded to the student in the most advanced course in English composition who shows the greatest literary promise.
