

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

 FINAL

Established Dec. 8, 1888.

Largest Evening Newspaper In The Two Carolinas Charlotte, North Carolina, Saturday, March 10, 1956

34 Pages—Price Five Cents

ALL IS READY AS EXHIBITORS PLACE BLOOMS

Two exhibitors at the Camellia Show were placing their blooms on the long display table in the American Trust Co. lobby this morning.

Flowers Grace Bank Lobby As Camellia Show Begins

By CHARLES KIRALY Charlotte News Staff Writer The second annual Camellia Show opened today at American Trust Co.,

Judges began the difficult task of placing ribbons in the entries early this afternoon.

Bar camellias are among the hardest of plants, he said, and since different varieties bloom about seven months of each year

Eleven Persons Killed In Two Auto Collisions

One killed, called "Emily Wilson," was exhibited by the lady for whom it was named. Mrs. Emily Wilson of Raleigh, S. C.

Both drivers, Donald Malner, 31, of Grand Rapids, and Alan Phillips, 48, of Muskegon, were killed.

McKay Files For Senate

SALEM, Ore. — Secretary of the Interior McKay filed for Republican nomination as senator from Oregon yesterday.

Our Weather

Sunny and warmer today, fair and mild tonight. Sunday, increasing cloudiness and warming.

Michigan Mishap Is Fatal To Six

COOPERVILLE, Mich. — Six persons—four from one family—were killed last night in a head-on two-car crash near this western Michigan community.

Lack Of Beef Brings Beef From Beef Council Leader

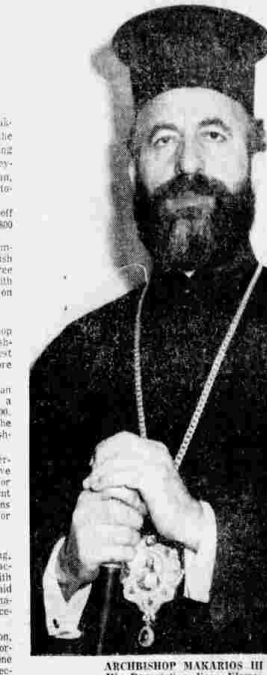

LINCOLN, Neb. — It was the lack of beef that made the president of the Nebraska Beef Council beef.

Protest Ousting Of Bishop

Tension Mounts in Cyprus As Strike Paralyzes Island

Greek Bishop To Be Exiled On Seychelles

LONDON — Archbishop Makarios, deposed leader of the Greek revolt on Cyprus, is being sent to exile on the remote Seychelle Islands in the Indian Ocean,

ARCHBISHOP MAKARIOS III His Deportation Fans Flames

To Make Congress Race

Jonas, Clarke Picked By GOP

North Carolina Republicans nominated two congressional candidates — one a political novice — in district 12 delegates to the National Convention in district conventions yesterday.

What's Inside

Table with 2 columns: Category and Count

Evening Prayer

O Lord, we recognize that even the good temporary things may keep us from seeing "deus only."

British Paratroopers Patrol Nicosia Streets

NICOSIA, Cyprus. — Thousands of Cyprus and British troops in a paralyzing general strike today in protest against Britain's deportation of Archbishop Makarios III as a secessionist ruler.

Embassies Under Guard In Athens

ATHENS, Greece. — Greek military guards took up positions around the British and American embassies today as crowds of angry demonstrators swarmed in and through the temples of the city.

French Attempt To Halt Riots

PARIS. — Violence spilled over from North Africa into the streets of Paris as French forces today tried to stem new manifestations of anti-French riots in restive Tunisia and Algeria.

Scientist Says Bone Fossils Indicate Man On Earth 10 Million Years Ago

NEW YORK. — A Swiss scientist says a human-like jawbone found embedded in a chunk of shaly black coal may mean that modern man is much more ancient than previously suspected.

TEARS OF HAPPINESS fill the eyes of Walter Buzz, as he cradles his new dog in his arms. Walter's former pet, a young German shepherd, was killed by a hit-and-drive on Feb. 21.

Harding said the archbishop was "an irreconcilable force for evil."

Mr. Jones said that the British had whiskered their spiritual leader and three of his lieutenants in a giant Royal Air Force Hastings transport, Church bells tolled. Shopkeepers rolled down their shutters.

Darwin's theory that man and the apes descended from a comparatively recent common ancestor may also be supported.

British Paratroopers Patrol Nicosia Streets

Nicosia, Cyprus. — Thousands of Cyprus and British troops in a paralyzing general strike today in protest against Britain's deportation of Archbishop Makarios III as a secessionist ruler.

Embassies Under Guard In Athens

Athens, Greece. — Greek military guards took up positions around the British and American embassies today as crowds of angry demonstrators swarmed in and through the temples of the city.

French Attempt To Halt Riots

Paris. — Violence spilled over from North Africa into the streets of Paris as French forces today tried to stem new manifestations of anti-French riots in restive Tunisia and Algeria.

Scientist Says Bone Fossils Indicate Man On Earth 10 Million Years Ago

New York. — A Swiss scientist says a human-like jawbone found embedded in a chunk of shaly black coal may mean that modern man is much more ancient than previously suspected.