The Hottle Case: A Sin Of Omission

THE hindsight of County Commissioners was limited to the surface aspects of the Hottle case. There was no clear and fundamental expression of confidence in the Welfare Dept. and other county agencies involved in the unfortunate controversy.

The circumstances which produced it were unusual, even bizarre. Likewise, the chain of events involving the death of a child and a highly dramatic trial resulted in deep doubts and an enormous amount of emotion.

Foreign Aid: Dulles Must Be Frank

Trouble with Congress over his foreign aid program has been foretold clearly. His own Senate leader, Knowland of California, joined powerful Democrats in advance opposition to Mr. Eisenhower's request yesterday for power to make long-term commitments on certain non-military projects.

Mr. Eisenhower argues to the contrary with considerably more frankness. "We must assume," he said, "that Soviet expansionism has merely taken on a somewhat different guise, and that its fundamental objective is still to disrupt and in the end to dominate the free nations."

Vandalism: Protection Or Repairs

WHAT will not stop vandalism in city recreation areas is fairly well defined by now. The measures that have failed are:

"Well, you tell those Pentagon people I'm not an enemy bomber trying to sneak through the radar..."

Which Is The Wordier Of The Species?

T H E theory that the human female is invariably wordier than the male has been officially disproved at last. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me.) has the shortest "autobiographical sketch" among U.S. senators listed in the new CONGRESSIONAL DIRECTORY.

The estimated value of these blood products exceeded total funds contributed during 1955 and drives in the state.

ALL THE WAY, PLEASE

HOT dog lovers will be pleased to know that their favorite delicacy is "up to snuff" in nutritional values. The important information we learn from THE MANCHESTER GUARDIAN, of all places (The British have been most dog-conscious since 1939 when Mrs. Roosevelt served franky King George VI and Queen Elizabeth at the White House.)

The teacher was a big booming hulk of a man whose booming voice had the class in a constant state of upheaval. "Course," he barked one day at one of his pupils, "tell me how you can prove that the earth is round." "Please, sir," said the frightened boy, "I don't say it. It was round." — FORT MYERS (FLA.) Democratic Party Faces Political Bankruptcy Bravely

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON (AP) — A political act of accounting, the Democratic Party today would be found in a state close to bankruptcy. The internal stresses and strains, the painful uncertainties over candidates and issues all add up to a state of total collapse.

Since the southern movement led by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, of Texas, is aimed at forcing the Democratic coalition to accept a compromise on the integration issue, such a compromise would alienate voters in the North.

As was so well demonstrated in the Salter-to-Eisenhower... As was so well demonstrated in the Salter-to-Eisenhower... As was so well demonstrated in the Salter-to-Eisenhower...

The second factor is money for a presidential campaign. The Democrats almost always have had trouble in this department. Democratic Chairman Paul Hoffman, who outlines the proposal of Philip L. Graham, publisher of the Washington Post and Times Herald, to get the Advertising Council behind a nationwide campaign for small contributions to be made by members of both parties.

DARK HINTS
The Democratic candidate who has been in all the polls to be far ahead is Adlai Stevenson. Two rivals, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, and Gov. Averell Harriman, of New York, are out to trip up the front-runner.

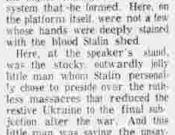

DIXIE'S REVOLT
A southern revolt was brewing. Southern delegates walked out of the convention to form a State's Rights Party.

After The 'Morbid Monster' Came The 'Jolly Gangsters'
By JOSEPH & STEWART ALSOB

As a candidate campaigning for reelection and reelection, Stevenson might lead the party to victory. This is doubtful, however.

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the Soviet Union, the truth is being told with a vengeance, and even rather vividly.

A simple answer is given by George... In the Soviet Union, the truth is being told with a vengeance, and even rather vividly.

For the people of the Soviet Union, this new picture of human nature, among their rulers no doubt a picture somewhat better than the terror is over.

Red Cross Needs Emergency Funds

THE 121 chapters of Red Cross in our state. The report also states that whole blood, gamma globulin, and serum albumin valued at $1,424,200, based on commercial rates, were supplied with out charge to hospitals and physicians in North Carolina during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955.

The directors of the Charlotte Board of Realtors, gratefully acknowledge the splendid coverage which The Charlotte News is giving to Realtor Week and will take this means of expressing our appreciation.

Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round

WASHINGTON (AP) — The huckles bristled on the necks of 11 Democratic congressmen at a closed-door, highly secret meeting in the offices of Congressman Lyndon B. Johnson.

Borden Hires Recognized Labor Bailor

Two southern Democrats did not bristle. They objected to the suggestion that they should stay with the chairman, insisted Rep. Carl Elliott of Alabama. "The committee granted him the authority to hire the candidate and I will stay with him on his choice."
