

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

 FINAL

Established Dec. 8, 1888.

Largest Evening Newspaper In The Two Carolinas
Charlotte, North Carolina, Monday, March 5, 1956

44 Pages—Price Five Cents

County Board Orders Welfare Dept. Probe

Action Outgrowth Of Child's Death

At least a two-day investigation into the Welfare Dept.'s role in the Hottle case will be conducted by the entire Board of County Commissioners.

Eden Recalls Senior Brass From Jordan

LONDON (AP)—Britain recalled the remaining senior British officers in Jordan's Arab Legion today in retaliation for King Hussein's curt dismissal of Lt. Gen. John B. Glubb, the Arab Legion founder and commander.

SURE ENOUGH, IT'S SPRING

REGARDLESS OF the weather, spring has officially arrived in Charlotte. It came at approximately 10 o'clock this morning when a warm breeze, manager of the Charlotte Hornets of the Sally League, opened the gates of Griffith Park for a first look.

A SNOW-COVERED CAMPAIGN TRAIL is hit by Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, shown trying on snowshoes presented to him by Democrats of Berlin, N. H. A presidential primary will be held in New Hampshire March 13 and the Senator is making a strong bid for the support he had in 1952 when he swept the state. (AP Wirephoto)

Fighting Outbreak Brings Middle East War Nearer

JERUSALEM (AP)—A new Syrian-Israeli clash brought war closer to the seething Middle East today.

From Keck Family Member Senator Defends Campaign Money

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz.) says he accepted a campaign contribution from a member of the family that controls Superior Oil Co. of California.

SNUG HARBOR GETS STORMY

Henry J. Stokes, 2711 Cowles Rd., told county police today that he visited his place on Catehua River over the weekend to go boating.

Unique Race For Presbyterian College Site Ends Tomorrow

The Synod of North Carolina has voted to select the site for the new Presbyterian College in Raleigh.

Our Weather

Today, sunny and warm. Fair and warm tonight. Tomorrow, increasing cloudiness and continued warm, with a chance of scattered showers tomorrow night.

Winston Man Called For Red Hearing

WINSTON-SALEM (AP)—William A. McFirt Jr. of Winston-Salem, a 22-year-old veteran company employe, disclosed today that he has been subpoenaed to appear before the House Un-American Activities Committee in Charlotte on Tuesday, March 14.

VANDALS DAMAGE BULL-DOZER BECAUSE IT WOULDN'T START

Youngsters, angry because they could no longer start an engine on a small bulldozer, were blamed today for damaging the bulldozer, which is the property of Wheatley & Co., 797 Providence Rd.

Evening Prayer

Our Heavenly Father, help us to realize our responsibility to a world in chaos, and may we heed Thy command and go forward in Thy name, Amen.

What's Inside

Banks McFadden may be relieved of his duties as head basketball coach at Clemson College by James McKimmy a possible successor. Ev Case calls for North Carolina State victory in the ACC tournament the biggest of his career. Rollie Hemery, new Charlotte Hornets manager, gives his theory of how to manage a club. These and other sports headlines can be found on Page 10A.

Foreign Policy Neglect Predicted

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) said today presidential campaign discussion of foreign policy may be shunted aside by public absorption with President Eisenhower's health.

Winston Man In Concern Over Health

WINSTON-SALEM (AP)—William A. McFirt Jr. of Winston-Salem, a 22-year-old veteran company employe, disclosed today that he has been subpoenaed to appear before the House Un-American Activities Committee in Charlotte on Tuesday, March 14.

Eden Recalls Senior Brass From Jordan

LONDON (AP)—Britain recalled the remaining senior British officers in Jordan's Arab Legion today in retaliation for King Hussein's curt dismissal of Lt. Gen. John B. Glubb, the Arab Legion founder and commander.

Winston Man Called For Red Hearing

WINSTON-SALEM (AP)—William A. McFirt Jr. of Winston-Salem, a 22-year-old veteran company employe, disclosed today that he has been subpoenaed to appear before the House Un-American Activities Committee in Charlotte on Tuesday, March 14.

Evening Prayer

Our Heavenly Father, help us to realize our responsibility to a world in chaos, and may we heed Thy command and go forward in Thy name, Amen.

What's Inside

Banks McFadden may be relieved of his duties as head basketball coach at Clemson College by James McKimmy a possible successor. Ev Case calls for North Carolina State victory in the ACC tournament the biggest of his career. Rollie Hemery, new Charlotte Hornets manager, gives his theory of how to manage a club. These and other sports headlines can be found on Page 10A.