Gov. Hodges Wages A Good Fight

FOR GOV. HODGES' attempt to tumble a tower of misunderstanding arising from the Supreme Court's desegregation decision, we wish the arms of eloquence and insight. He will need them.

Multiple and incorrect analyses from a newly risen arm of street corner lawyers is the toughest bar to any confederated effort to keep the decision from wrecking the public schools and good race relations.

The Party Platform Is Obsolete

TO RANK and file Tar Heel Democrats, the tempest brewing in Raleigh over the party's 1956 state platform is unworthy of the smallest teapot.

A set marker "Mine" "Mine" Such is his hunger for credit, whether credit is deserved or not.

People's Platform

The Razy-Jazzy 'Menace'

Hendersonville Editors: The News: WITH reference to the razy-jazzy 'menace' which is sweeping our nation today, carrying all the thoughts and indifference before it like a violent, destructive hurricane...

Our home was purchased by the state as a five-room house and is only a four-room. Certainly everyone else makes mistakes, but should we have to pay for a room that wasn't there because of someone else's mistake when our taxes pay their salary to start with?

Aftermath Of War Vast And Stupid Waste

BIAK, New Guinea was salvagable, and the test is scrap at a good price. These prices are $500,000, or about $70,000, were paid on wrecked Jap planes from Holland alone...

He Said Sassafras Needs A Slow Boil

THE man at the door had some roots. We could smell them through the croaker sack at his feet even before he said they were sassafras and wouldn't we like some for tea? Well, we'd look.

He was disappointed, but he still offered a handful. And we took them and didn't have the heart to throw them away. We still smell them on the back porch where they are hidden.

An Unfair Situation On Beechwood Rd.

Editors: The News: AFTER reading the story appearing on the front page April 17, I feel everyone should know just why there are two families living on Beechwood Rd. who are still trying to hold on to our homes.

Don't Let Hypocrite Keep You At Home

Charlotte I AM sure you know what people call hypocrites. Many people talk about those people who go to church and are church members and yet live a worldly life.

Quote, Unquote

Now that we've seen some of the still photos which Miss Lollibrida complains makes her figure unbecomingly large...

BOX TOP, HARD TOP

THE automobile industry, which for many years has seen some sprightly sales efforts in this competitive field, now sees some of its manufacturers venturing into the insurance business.

But the idea is certainly an intriguing one, for nobody can say where it will lead from here on out. Ford might be induced to give away garages with every car.

Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round

WASHINGTON Editors: meeting in Washington this week, will be interested in the findings of Congressman John Moss, the diligent California Democrat who more than any other public official, has been digging into press censorship.

Moss Blames Press For Censorship

Wilson, explaining the kill, said he had ordered it because it was overheard by the President passed down a White House corridor, and "it was impossible to determine to whom the President was referring."
