

TV Highlights of Saturday

Perry Como hosts comedian Buddy Hackett, the singing Mills Brothers and songstress Eydie Gorme, on WKY-TV at 6 p.m. Perry offers: "Alexander's Ragtime Band," "Moonglow," "Picnic," "Can You Find It in Your Heart," "Don't Blame Me," and "Goodbye Sue."

Its Always Jan: No romantic interest enters the life of Jan Stewart, who lives with the memory of her husband killed in war, until big, exuberant "Joe" comes into the picture, on KWTW at 7:30 p.m.

Guns n' Smoke: Taken advantage of by an unscrupulous gambler, a youth runs amok when he realizes he is a pawn in a cruel scheme to rid Dodge City of Marshal Matt Dillon, on KWTW at 8 p.m.

Your Hit Parade: Featured extras include "Siboney," with Gisele MacKenzie, and Snooky Lanson singing "I Can't Get Started," on WKY-TV at 8:30 p.m.

Damon Runyon Theatre: Three jobless bodyguards are employed to transport a load of firearms to San Felice when a revolution is planned, in "Situation Wanted," on KWTW at 8:30 p.m.

Laurence Welk: Songs include "Avalon," "Ivory Tower," "Te Amo," "Why Do Fools Fall in Love," "Cecelia," "Yes Sir, That's My Baby," and "To You, My Love," on WKY-TV at 9 p.m.

The Honeymooners: Ralph and Ed are finally talked into taking their wives to the Rococco convention. The boys end up in the Pullman and run into such a complicity of errors, it almost overshadows the fact that they are on the wrong train, in "Unconventional Behavior," on KWTW at 9 p.m.

Stage Show: Song stylist Roberta Sherwood, Dick Haymes, and the Hines Brothers, exciting tap dancers, share the spotlight with Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey and their combined orchestra and the June Taylor Dancers, on KWTW at 9:30 p.m.

Turning Point: A mysterious stranger rescues a married woman on a deserted mountain path, in "Rescue at Twelve Lakes," on KWTW at 10 p.m.

Big Town: Editor Steve Wilson saves a young boy from becoming a juvenile delinquent and teaches his parents a lesson in human relations on "Adult Delinquents," on WKY-TV at 10:30 p.m.

'A Profile in Courage Dramatized on WKY-TV

"A Profile in Courage," the dramatization of a vital moment in American history based on Sen. John F. Kennedy's best selling book, will be presented on "Kraft Television Theatre," Wednesday at 7 p.m. on KWTW.

"A Profile in Courage" is the true story of Sen. Edmund G. Ross, whose one vote saved President Andrew Johnson from being ousted from the White House. His one ballot, cast 88 years ago to the day, not only saved Johnson but also preserved the United States system of government at a time when outraged public opinion was calling for downfall of the system. Ross lost his political neck, and more, as a result. He never again held elective office; he and his family underwent social ostracism, physical attack and the degradation of poverty. Only history would give him his true reward.

The book's author is the junior senator from Massachusetts and naval hero during World War II. His "Profiles in Courage" has been firmly established in the lists of the nation's top ten best sellers for nearly four months.

In chronological order, here are the dramatic events surrounding the impeachment trial:

April 14, 1865—President Lincoln mortally wounded by the assassin Booth.

April 15, 1865—Andrew Johnson takes the oath of office as President.

July 1, 1866—Sen. James Lane, of Kansas, takes his own life.

August 3, 1865—Edmund G. Ross appointed to succeed to Lane's seat in the Senate.

March 2, 1867—Congress enacts, over Presidential veto, the Tenure-of-Office Bill, which prevented the President from removing without the consent of the Senate, all new officeholders whose appointment required confirmation by that body.

August 5, 1867—Johnson asks resignation of Edwin M. Stanton as Secretary of War and appoints Gen. Ulysses S. Grant in his place.

Jan. 13, 1868—Senate notifies President Johnson and Grant that it does not concur in the suspension of Stanton; Grant vacates office on Stanton's return.

Feb. 21, 1868—President again

notifies Stanton he has been removed from office.

Feb. 24, 1868—House adopts a resolution to impeach President Johnson.

March 5, 1868—Trial of President Johnson for conviction or acquittal under the Articles of Impeachment begins.

May 16, 1868—Crucial and deciding vote on the impeachment is held. All Senators' votes were known ahead of time except that of Ross, whose one ballot for acquittal broke the back of the impeachment drive. The vote: 35 guilty, 19 not guilty. Required for conviction: 36 votes.

Giant-Dodgers Game Scheduled on KWTW

Baseball's arch rivals, the world champion Brooklyn Dodgers and the New York Giants, meet head-on in the "Baseball Game of the Week" on KWTW Saturday, starting at 11:55 a.m.

"Dizzy" Dean and his sports-casting partner, Buddy Blattner, will be on hand at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, to broadcast the play-by-play and "color" of the National League contest.

Dean also will be featured in a warm-up interview session, "Baseball Preview," beginning at 11:45 a.m., when he will discuss the national pastime with Buddy Blattner, coach of the New York Giants and former great Cincinnati Redlegs pitcher.

Eat Commercial?

CBS News personnel slated to go to the Presidential conventions this summer in Chicago and San Francisco are especially happy that Westinghouse will sponsor the political coverage. Reason?

The delicious food prepared for the media eventually winds its way to the hungry and busy newsmen who don't have the time to leave their microphones and typewriters.

IN ADVENTURE SERIES—Anita Louise and Johnny Washbrook, stars of "My Friend Flicka," on Wednesday nights on KWTW, have their hands full with two terrier friends, "Lone-some" (right), Johnny's canine pal, and his stand-in, "Junior". Anita Louise plays the role of Nell McLaughlin, mother of Ken McLaughlin, played by Johnny.

TV News and Personalities

Ann Sothern has an offer from NBC-TV to star in from four to six spectaculars next season.

Dezi Arnaz wants to feature film the Broadway hit, "Fallen Angels," which stars Nancy Walker.

When Faye Emerson takes over emcee chores for Garry Moore on "I've Got a Secret" the end of this month, she'll bring in an entirely new panel.

The George Gobel feature film for this summer, "I Married a Woman," got a name change since last week. Now it's "So There You Are."

"Wide Wide World" is due for an evening slotting in the fall. NBC feels it was too good for Sunday afternoon.

Eddie Fisher's sponsor has renewed the singer's contract for his fourth year on NBC-TV.

Lena Horne is making a series of telefilms in London.

Patti Page, star of twice-weekly 15-minute song-fest, "The Patti Page Show," is being tested this week by 20th Century-Fox for a term contract.

Loretta Young will film 45 instead of the usual 39 half-hours for her series next season.

June Havoc turned down the first three treatments of the project "Winnie Winkle" tele-series.
