

PAMPHLETS, GUNS, KLAN ROBES SEIZED IN 'HATE LITERATURE RAID'

Hate Press' Crackdown Renewed

By DONALD MACDONALD and CHARLES KURALT
Charlotte News Staff Writers
New arrests appeared imminent today in "hate literature" by County Police.

A squad of officers headed by Capt. George Stephens led County Police headquarters shortly before noon with a search warrant for a house in which a second printing press was reported in operation.

Photo by L. L. A. Smith
CAPT. GEORGE STEPHENS
And the 'Hate' Press

Montreat Meeting Disputed Issues Before Assembly

MONTREAT — The General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church is scheduled to receive a controversial report "On Marriage, Divorce and Remarriage" tomorrow.

The issues, which have topped up in assemblies since 1898, will be considered by almost 500 commissioners at this assembly meeting which continues through Tuesday.

The ad interim committee's report includes a recommendation which calls for deletion of paragraphs in the Confession of Faith which allows remarriage following divorce for "adultery" or "wilful desertion."

Thus making the Confession of Faith bear witness to the divine intention for marriage as set forth in the Bible, without any exception, the recommendation says.

The ad interim committee's report includes a recommendation which calls for deletion of paragraphs in the Confession of Faith which allows remarriage following divorce for "adultery" or "wilful desertion."

Thus making the Confession of Faith bear witness to the divine intention for marriage as set forth in the Bible, without any exception, the recommendation says.

The ad interim committee's report includes a recommendation which calls for deletion of paragraphs in the Confession of Faith which allows remarriage following divorce for "adultery" or "wilful desertion."

Thus making the Confession of Faith bear witness to the divine intention for marriage as set forth in the Bible, without any exception, the recommendation says.

The ad interim committee's report includes a recommendation which calls for deletion of paragraphs in the Confession of Faith which allows remarriage following divorce for "adultery" or "wilful desertion."

Thus making the Confession of Faith bear witness to the divine intention for marriage as set forth in the Bible, without any exception, the recommendation says.

The ad interim committee's report includes a recommendation which calls for deletion of paragraphs in the Confession of Faith which allows remarriage following divorce for "adultery" or "wilful desertion."

Requested By State

Court Order Outlaws NAACP In Alabama

Injunction Answer Due In 30 Days

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Circuit Judge Walter B. Jones issued a temporary injunction today outlawing the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in Alabama.

The restraining order was granted at the request of Alabama Atty. Gen. John Patterson and will remain in effect until "further orders of the court."

It prohibits the NAACP from conducting further business in the state, from organizing any new chapters, from collecting any more funds.

The Negro organization was given 30 days to file an answer. However, NAACP attorneys can ask the court to dissolve the injunction, and a hearing would then be set on that request.

Patterson's petition accused the NAACP of organizing and supporting the Montgomery bus boycott, and of employing or otherwise paying Mrs. Autherine Lucy Foster and another Negro woman to enroll at the University of Alabama.

Acts of the NAACP, Patterson charged, "have resulted in violations of our laws and tend in many instances to create a breach of the peace."

"We cannot stand idly by and raise no hand to stay their forces of confusion who are trying to capitalize upon racial factors for private gain or advancement," he declared.

The attorney general's court action asserted that the NAACP is a foreign corporation organized in the state of New York, and that it has engaged in business without complying with Alabama laws.

Louisiana earlier had invoked an old anti-Klux Klan law act against the NAACP in an effort to halt its operations in that state.

The organization was accused of failing to file certain information required by Alabama laws.

"ILLEGAL BOYCOTT" — The petition said that the NAACP through its members and agents has engaged in "organizing, supporting and financing an illegal boycott by Negro residents of Montgomery to compel the Montgomery Motor Lines . . . to integrate seating arrangements."

This action was called "in contravention of a valid ordinance of the City of Montgomery, enacted by the exercise of its police power."

Negroes have been boycotting Montgomery buses since last December when a Negro woman was arrested for refusing to move from a white section.

The Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., Negro leader of the mass meeting, has been convicted of violating state boycott laws.

The suit charges that the NAACP employed or otherwise paid money to one Autherine Lucy and one Polly Myers Hudson, members of the Negro race, to encourage and aid them in the policy of that institution in denying entrance as a student to persons of the Negro race."

Another inquiry regarding plans for integration of races in Charlotte schools has been made by the local unit of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

A letter to members of the City School Board's special study committee asks for an opportunity to hear the plans that have been made to carry out the desegregation ruling of the Supreme Court.

The letter was signed by F. T. Drakeford, chairman of the NAACP's educational committee, and a member of the faculty at Johnson C. Smith University.

Ten days ago the City School Board had received a letter from the Charlotte Negro Parents' Teacher Council asking that the non-segregation policy be put into effect at the opening of schools next September.

The school board committee consisting of J. P. Hobson, chairman, Mrs. Douglas Aiken and Mrs. B. B. B. has been studying the problem for about a year.

There was no comment from school officials regarding the NAACP inquiry.

Yippeee! School Is Out—Here at Midwood School And For Thousands Of Other Cheering Kids Today

Today's THE DAY For Youngsters

It just depends on how old you are. Take the youngsters above. They're in the grammar grades. Today is the biggest day of the year for them. It is even better than Christmas vacation or Thanksgiving.

They are in the grammar grades. Today is the biggest day of the year for them. It is even better than Christmas vacation or Thanksgiving.

They are in the grammar grades. Today is the biggest day of the year for them. It is even better than Christmas vacation or Thanksgiving.

They are in the grammar grades. Today is the biggest day of the year for them. It is even better than Christmas vacation or Thanksgiving.

They are in the grammar grades. Today is the biggest day of the year for them. It is even better than Christmas vacation or Thanksgiving.

They are in the grammar grades. Today is the biggest day of the year for them. It is even better than Christmas vacation or Thanksgiving.

They are in the grammar grades. Today is the biggest day of the year for them. It is even better than Christmas vacation or Thanksgiving.

They are in the grammar grades. Today is the biggest day of the year for them. It is even better than Christmas vacation or Thanksgiving.

They are in the grammar grades. Today is the biggest day of the year for them. It is even better than Christmas vacation or Thanksgiving.

They are in the grammar grades. Today is the biggest day of the year for them. It is even better than Christmas vacation or Thanksgiving.

They are in the grammar grades. Today is the biggest day of the year for them. It is even better than Christmas vacation or Thanksgiving.

They are in the grammar grades. Today is the biggest day of the year for them. It is even better than Christmas vacation or Thanksgiving.

They are in the grammar grades. Today is the biggest day of the year for them. It is even better than Christmas vacation or Thanksgiving.

They are in the grammar grades. Today is the biggest day of the year for them. It is even better than Christmas vacation or Thanksgiving.

What's Inside

WANT TO IMPROVE YOUR "HORSE SENSE"? . . . The News today gives tips on how to understand and enjoy a horse show. Sally Watkins provides the information and artist Ken Whitsett does the illustrations on the Women's Pages.

MENTAL ILLNESS CURE UPCOMING? . . . The bloodstream may hold the answer. Experiments, conducted in Louisiana with convicts for guinea pigs, are explained on page 2B, the Feature Page.

GOT THOSE COMMENCEMENT BLUES? . . . Staff Writer Julian Scheer takes readers along on a literary journey into his college past in "I Remember Chapel Hill." It's an editorial page salute to the University of North Carolina's 1956 commencement. Turn to 6A.

Business . . . BA 8B
Classified . . . 8-11B
Comics . . . 7B
Crossword Puzzle . . . 8A
Editorials . . . 6A
Features . . . 2B
Obituaries . . . 8B

Radio-TV . . . 14A
Serials . . . 14B
Sports . . . 5-6B
Theaters . . . 6B
Wishing Well . . . 11A
Women . . . 12-13A
World News Roundup . . . 2A

By JULIAN SCHEER
Charlotte News Staff Writer
The summing up of what to do with our public schools will be tossed into the laps of Tar Heel voters.

That much is clear today following Gov. Luther Hodges' calling of a special session of the General Assembly next month to deal with the school segregation problem.

In either a special election or at the November general election, the public will be asked to vote on a constitutional amendment to fix the school segregation problem.

Go First to FIELDS — Expert Watch Repairs. (Adv.)

Evening Prayer

Our Heavenly Father, we have fallen into the depths of despair. Lift us up by the strength of Thy presence that we may find that good and perfect way which is Thine. We ask it in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

There are two general types of legislation. The first will be a measure which would authorize a referendum so that the public can vote on two constitutional amendments.

SEVERAL BILLS — The other legislation will take the form of several bills to implement the constitutional amendments if the people vote "yes."

The referendum is tentatively set for the November general election. But, if pressure is evident for a meeting of races in the district for a referendum, a special election could be called after.

Integration Plan Data Requested

Another inquiry regarding plans for integration of races in Charlotte schools has been made by the local unit of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

A letter to members of the City School Board's special study committee asks for an opportunity to hear the plans that have been made to carry out the desegregation ruling of the Supreme Court.

The letter was signed by F. T. Drakeford, chairman of the NAACP's educational committee, and a member of the faculty at Johnson C. Smith University.

Ten days ago the City School Board had received a letter from the Charlotte Negro Parents' Teacher Council asking that the non-segregation policy be put into effect at the opening of schools next September.

The school board committee consisting of J. P. Hobson, chairman, Mrs. Douglas Aiken and Mrs. B. B. B. has been studying the problem for about a year.

There was no comment from school officials regarding the NAACP inquiry.

Another inquiry regarding plans for integration of races in Charlotte schools has been made by the local unit of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

A letter to members of the City School Board's special study committee asks for an opportunity to hear the plans that have been made to carry out the desegregation ruling of the Supreme Court.

The letter was signed by F. T. Drakeford, chairman of the NAACP's educational committee, and a member of the faculty at Johnson C. Smith University.

Ten days ago the City School Board had received a letter from the Charlotte Negro Parents' Teacher Council asking that the non-segregation policy be put into effect at the opening of schools next September.

The school board committee consisting of J. P. Hobson, chairman, Mrs. Douglas Aiken and Mrs. B. B. B. has been studying the problem for about a year.

There was no comment from school officials regarding the NAACP inquiry.

No Rocky Mount Action

The issue was raised by the Rev. James W. Bulman, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Rocky Mount, N. C., two years ago had created confusion on the convention's position regarding majority rule.

At Rocky Mount, the majority of the congregation, led by its minister, the Rev. Samuel H. W. Johnston, voted to take the church out of the local, state and Southern Baptist associations. The minority carried the case to court and won back control and management of the church property.

At Rocky Mount, the majority of the congregation, led by its minister, the Rev. Samuel H. W. Johnston, voted to take the church out of the local, state and Southern Baptist associations. The minority carried the case to court and won back control and management of the church property.

At Rocky Mount, the majority of the congregation, led by its minister, the Rev. Samuel H. W. Johnston, voted to take the church out of the local, state and Southern Baptist associations. The minority carried the case to court and won back control and management of the church property.

At Rocky Mount, the majority of the congregation, led by its minister, the Rev. Samuel H. W. Johnston, voted to take the church out of the local, state and Southern Baptist associations. The minority carried the case to court and won back control and management of the church property.

At Rocky Mount, the majority of the congregation, led by its minister, the Rev. Samuel H. W. Johnston, voted to take the church out of the local, state and Southern Baptist associations. The minority carried the case to court and won back control and management of the church property.

At Rocky Mount, the majority of the congregation, led by its minister, the Rev. Samuel H. W. Johnston, voted to take the church out of the local, state and Southern Baptist associations. The minority carried the case to court and won back control and management of the church property.

At Rocky Mount, the majority of the congregation, led by its minister, the Rev. Samuel H. W. Johnston, voted to take the church out of the local, state and Southern Baptist associations. The minority carried the case to court and won back control and management of the church property.

At Rocky Mount, the majority of the congregation, led by its minister, the Rev. Samuel H. W. Johnston, voted to take the church out of the local, state and Southern Baptist associations. The minority carried the case to court and won back control and management of the church property.

At Rocky Mount, the majority of the congregation, led by its minister, the Rev. Samuel H. W. Johnston, voted to take the church out of the local, state and Southern Baptist associations. The minority carried the case to court and won back control and management of the church property.

At Rocky Mount, the majority of the congregation, led by its minister, the Rev. Samuel H. W. Johnston, voted to take the church out of the local, state and Southern Baptist associations. The minority carried the case to court and won back control and management of the church property.

At Rocky Mount, the majority of the congregation, led by its minister, the Rev. Samuel H. W. Johnston, voted to take the church out of the local, state and Southern Baptist associations. The minority carried the case to court and won back control and management of the church property.

Plane Crash Fatal To Four

DENVER (AP) — Four were killed today in the crash of a B-5 Air Force plane shortly after taking off from Lowry Air Force Base on a flight from Tacoma, Wash., to Panama City, Fla.

Four other men aboard the plane were taken to the Lowry hospital. One was described as in critical condition and the others as fair.

The plane stopped here to refuel on a flight from McChord Field, near Tacoma, to Tindall Air Force Base near Panama City.

Moments after the plane was airborne the pilot radioed for permission to make an emergency landing. The propeller on one of the two engines was feathered when the plane crashed into a cemetery about a mile south of the Lowry runways.

Moments after the plane was airborne the pilot radioed for permission to make an emergency landing. The propeller on one of the two engines was feathered when the plane crashed into a cemetery about a mile south of the Lowry runways.

Moments after the plane was airborne the pilot radioed for permission to make an emergency landing. The propeller on one of the two engines was feathered when the plane crashed into a cemetery about a mile south of the Lowry runways.

Moments after the plane was airborne the pilot radioed for permission to make an emergency landing. The propeller on one of the two engines was feathered when the plane crashed into a cemetery about a mile south of the Lowry runways.

Moments after the plane was airborne the pilot radioed for permission to make an emergency landing. The propeller on one of the two engines was feathered when the plane crashed into a cemetery about a mile south of the Lowry runways.

Moments after the plane was airborne the pilot radioed for permission to make an emergency landing. The propeller on one of the two engines was feathered when the plane crashed into a cemetery about a mile south of the Lowry runways.

Moments after the plane was airborne the pilot radioed for permission to make an emergency landing. The propeller on one of the two engines was feathered when the plane crashed into a cemetery about a mile south of the Lowry runways.

Moments after the plane was airborne the pilot radioed for permission to make an emergency landing. The propeller on one of the two engines was feathered when the plane crashed into a cemetery about a mile south of the Lowry runways.

Moments after the plane was airborne the pilot radioed for permission to make an emergency landing. The propeller on one of the two engines was feathered when the plane crashed into a cemetery about a mile south of the Lowry runways.

Columbia Flood Threat Growing

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — The mighty Columbia River, fed by melting snows, surged higher today and threatened dikes in populous southwestern Washington.

The outlook was eased somewhat by forecasts of cooler weather tonight. This would slow the snow melt that sent the river to 6.7 feet above its banks in the Vancouver, Wash., area yesterday.

Partly cloudy and scattered showers this afternoon. Saturday mostly fair.

Our Weather

Low this morning . . . 69
Low tomorrow morning . . . 69
High today . . . 87
High yesterday . . . 87
High tomorrow . . . 82
Sunrise today, 6:00 a.m.;
sunset today, 7:32 p.m.

More Weather Data on Page 2-A