

Thomas L. Robinson... President and Publisher
Brodie S. Griffith... General Manager
Cecil Prince... Associate Editor
R. L. Young Jr... Managing Editor
W. W. Sirmon... Circulation Manager

SATURDAY, JUNE 16, 1956

Press And Courts: An Olive Branch

UNLIKE alarmists who simply shout "Trial by newspaper" whenever problems arise concerning press coverage of judicial proceedings, Judge Hubert Olive is a practical man...

Both the press and the courts are interested in seeing that justice is done and that rights are protected. We happen to believe that open courts best serve the cause of justice.

Mixing Medicine And Political Magic

FOR a week now the U. S. public has been spooned a possibly stupefying mixture of medical findings and political magic.

ident—who has suffered a heart attack and a major operation at 65 is somehow more physically fit to run for a second term than before his operation we never heard of.

Diplomacy: The Missiles Are Musical

MUSIC'S charm hath recognized beast-soothing potency but what about its effect on the Bear-That-Walks-Like-A-Man? Can it win the Russian to our side?

read about them." Cultural exchange, said Mr. Stern, "will be far more effective than several thousand diplomatic notes in promoting international understanding."

Henry Belk In The Goldsboro News-Area

FLOUR SACK DRAWERS

THE modern generation of small boys knows nothing of flour-sack drawers. But to the most of us men of middle age, the subject is one of intimate acquaintance.

development. The desire for a cooling swim was greater and overcame my timidity at showing my flour-sack garment. It was good for me that I learned to do what must be done even in the face of a disconcerting situation.

'Mutations, Shmutations—As Long As You're Healthy'

Doctors And Propaganda

The War Over Ike's Illness

By DORIS FLEESON
sufter from the disease. He thought there was nothing in the picture to prevent the President from running again.

Changing Trends In Business Starts New Tax Cutting Talk

By CONGRESSIONAL QUARTERLY

IF SIGNS of a business slump continue to develop during the next few weeks, you can expect renewed talk of a tax cut before Congress adjourns.

Right now, the administration has its fingers crossed. It is glued to the economic indicators. Business, as the experts say, is in a flux. Inflation is a pressure — the bidding up of prices when demand outruns supply — remains strong in some lines.

People's Platform

Franklin Believed In Divine Protection
Editors, The News: IN CASE there are some who are not very familiar with the tenets of the Benjamin Franklin, and the very practical faith he had in God, this quotation might be published to rescue reputation from the impression left by last week's letter concerning him.

Merry-Go-Round Drew Pearson's

WASHINGTON
IT has been overlooked in the Pentagon's promotion of the Air Force through the use of a get-around budget restrictions on publicity. The Army, Navy, and Air Force simply use their contractors to buy advertising for them.

Contractors Buy Armed Forces Ads

WASHINGTON
Navy-Air Force feeding
As private companies, they are not restricted by the Pentagon rules against feeding. Thus the services get the benefit of this indirect publicity without having to be charged against their publicity budgets.