

Established Dec. 8, 1888.

Charlotte, North Carolina, Monday, June 18, 1956

24 Pages — Price Five Cents

A. G. Brown wades into legal papers in the courtroom this morning.

Nixon's Second Term Question Unanswered

Nixon Says Politics Not Topic

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Nixon conferred with President Eisenhower at Walter Reed Hospital today but reported there was absolutely no discussion of whether Eisenhower intends to remain in the presidential race.

In February, new Rozelle's Ferry Bridge had already spanned the Catawba.

'Dictatorship,' Brown Counsel Cries Of City Zone Laws

By CHARLES KURALT Charlotte News Staff Writer Attorneys for A. G. Brown argued in Civil Court today that all zoning laws are unconstitutional and "the nearest thing to a dictatorship in this country."

for residential use only. This amounts to confiscation of a man's property without giving the man a voice in the government."

City Attorney John D. Shaw argued today that Mr. Brown violated the city's perimeter zoning ordinance by failure to obtain a building permit.

Idea Of 'Splinter' Party Called Democratic Suicide

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. George D'Agnese said today it would be suicidal for Southern Democrats to start a splinter or third party movement.

implication that Southern Democratic organizations might choose an independent course of action, said he is not a delegate and does not expect to attend the Democratic convention.

Aug. 1 Latest Date Set For Bridge Opening

The much-postponed completion date for the Rozelle's Ferry Bridge is now set at Aug. 1.

FATHER SUBS FOR DOCTOR IN STORK RACE

BOSTON (AP)—Philip K. Chaplain of North Andover became the father of a daughter on Father's Day in a very active manner.

Where'll They Go? Closing Of Homes Strands Patients

The closing of two local nursing homes leaves the country with 14 patients and no place to put them. The problem was laid before the County Commissioners today by Mrs. Kay Gary, director of charity hospitalization for the county.

Secretary of State Dulles also visited Eisenhower. The vice president saw Eisenhower for about 15 minutes with him.

U.S. Aid Program Held 'Patchwork'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.) today described the foreign aid program as a "clumsy patchwork."

rather than obliterate it. At least two years have passed since it was perfectly clear that both military and economic aid must undergo a full reappraisal.

Our Weather Partly cloudy and continued warm today, tonight and Tuesday. Widely scattered thunder showers in the afternoon and evening.

RATING IN DANGER Commission Chairman S. Y. McEwen warned that unless the arrangement is temporary that the hospital will lose its A-1 rating.

MAN FINED FOR 'DRAG RACING' ASHEVILLE (AP)—Six months on the roads was doled out in General County today to a 21-year-old Alexander youth convicted of "drag racing."

18 British Soldiers Die In Forest Fire NICOSSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Nineteen British soldiers engaged in a battle to close the net on Grivas and 10 other EOKA leaders who were trapped by a forest fire yesterday and lost their lives.

GRANADE INJURES 17 MUNICH, Germany (AP)—A hand grenade exploded in a Munich nightclub just before midnight last night and injured eight American soldiers and eight Germans.

Evening Prayer O Lord, grant unto us the joy of Thy salvation that we may have a new song of gladness in our hearts, as we dedicate our all to Thee.

Apologies To 'Good People' Of S. C. Board Backs Water On Bowaters

By ANN SAWYER Charlotte News Staff Writer With apologies "to those good people South Carolina," the County Commissioners today rescinded their motion of last week asking Governor Hodges to do what he could to block construction of the Bowater paper mill.

The resolution, presented by Commissioner Herbert Garrison and seconded by Commissioner John McEwen, got the support of Chairman S. Y. McEwen today. However, Commissioner Craig Lawing said that if the board's action was "right last week, it's still right."

ASKS ASSISTANCE It was after the Saturday night race — a series of races which attracted some 150 cars and more than 300 spectators that Capt. D. G. Lewis, commanding officer of Troop E, State Highway Patrol, called for public assistance in breaking up "a fad which has become a blight on the Leicester highway late Saturday night."

SAVED BY 'COPPER' The injured were evacuated from the area by helicopter. About 2,000 British troops had been engaged in an extensive operation in the area for several days, seeking to close in on George Grivas, the former Greek army colonel the British say leads the terrorist rebel organization known as EOKA under the name of carelessness of troops. The cause of the fire was not determined. It has been suspected that the rebels have set some previous fires, but the British also have been accused of starting some through mortar fire and carelessness of troops.

of the new bridge, being constructed by F. A. Triplett of Chester, S. C., is estimated at $700,000. The bridge will be 1,068 feet long, same length as the bridge it will replace. It is being constructed of structural steel with concrete base and railings.

Business 11A Radio-TV 4A Classified 9-11B Serial 9A Comics 10A Sports 6-9B Editorials 6A Theaters 8B Features 2B Women 3-5B Obituaries 4A