

Peddlers Of Prejudice Have A Price

UGLIEST aspects of the hate traffic were a long time coming into focus. It remained for County Police Capt. George Stephens to supply the missing motive. It is, of course, money.

But when someone tries to feed us prejudices in handy capsule form—and charges us by the dosage—we get our dander up.

Where Did They Put Those Issues?

BASIL WHITENER was in PEOPLE'S PLATOON yesterday demanding that Ralph Gardner join him in a television debate of the issues in their congressional run-off race in the Eleventh District.

the commission of any peccadillos they succeed in pinning on one another. We also are persuaded that both are better than either would have the voters believe.

Elegance Is Not Mr. Truman's Baby

SOME of the speechmaking at Oxford University was in Latin, but there was no misunderstanding.

won, affords a sharp contrast with Mr. Truman's Missouri language. Lord Faringdon surely would never term anyone a "squireheaded general" but then, of course he might become so involved with preciosity as to forget the hotel keepers.

From The Green Bay (Wis.) Press-Gazette

SONG THAT LIVED 100 YEARS

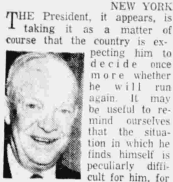

THE LITTLE BROWN CHURCH IN THE VALE, the song that has given so much pleasure to so many is 100 years old this year. It was in 1856 that William S. Pitts, a rural school teacher near Evansville, Wis., wrote the song but it was seven years later that he actually summoned the courage to sing it in public and finally to send it on to a publisher.

Brown Church. Two years later he entered Rush Medical College. In 1868 he was graduated with a degree of Doctor of Medicine and returned to Fredricksburg where he practiced for 38 years. Thus the country school teacher who once played a trumpet in the Stoughton band brought world fame to himself and to his Little Brown Church in the Vale, and pleasure to thousands who have never even heard of the author.

A Medical Guarantee?

Doctors And The Presidency

By WALTER LIPPMANN

WALTER LIPPMANN

THE President, it appears, is taking it as a matter of course that the country is expecting him to assure the President's health for the next four years.

validism or for falling powers. This is what is in the back of people's minds when they listen to the medical opinions of the doctors. They are waiting to be reassured that the President's health for the next four years.

not necessary to do any medical guessing about what will happen in the future over a period of years.

SHERMAN ADAMS

There Is No Substitute For The Chief

regency, as operated by Mr. Sherman Adams during the illness of President Eisenhower, given his age and his medical history, it is a momentous question.

in a presidential system of government for a strong president in full possession of his powers. This truth is the point of reference for the decision that may be made by the President, and, if he wishes to run, then later on by the country.

'Shocking' Lag In Air Power To Become Torrid Issue

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON LEADING Democrats in the Senate are accumulating data to support their charge that Eisenhower administration, for reasons of economy and sheer neglect, is permitting the Soviet Union to take the lead over the United States in air power.

the Strategic Air Command. Until long and intermediate range missiles are developed, the SAC, equipped to deliver atom and hydrogen bombs, is considered the chief deterrent to war.

SMALL U. S. MISSILE

Where Are The Giants?

ception not the approved type of alternator. And until they are officially accepted, air policy is still in limbo.

ing additional bases to disperse the Strategic Air Command in both sides of the dispute. It would be less vulnerable to enemy attack and for stepping up the B-52 production program to the optimum of 20 a month.

'I Feel Fine, Doc. I Just Want An Analysis Of The Political Situation'

Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round

CITY folks sometimes wonder why the farmer is confused, bewildered, and irate. The manner in which the man who Taft-Benson, backtracked, flip-flopped and reversed himself on the question of the soil bank illustrates one reason why.

Exra Benson Has Farmers Bewildered

March and April for being slow in passing the soil-bank program. Flip-flop No. 4.—On May 29, as Eisenhower signed the soil-bank bill, Benson announced: "We are moving immediately to put the soil-bank program into effect."

People's Platform

Letters should be brief. The writer's name and address must be given, but may be withheld from publication in the discretion of the editors. The writers reserve the right to condense.

Benjamin Franklin Was An 'Infidel'

ATTEMPTS to obscure the Atheism of Benjamin Franklin with inference and insinuation, suggesting that he entertained religious convictions bearing an affinity to the orthodox and dogmatic Judeo-Christian superstitions, could issue only from the ill-informed, ulterior motivated, or literary dishonesty.

Another Reversal

Flip-flop No. 8.—On June 8 Benson let the White House. This was on the day Eisenhower was rushed to the hospital for an emergency operation. He had not been there long when aides are now accustomed to assuming considerable prerogative for Ike. They are not to be surprised that Benson would be made to retreat on this point.