

Thomas L. Robinson President and Publisher
Brodie S. Griffith General Manager
Cecil Prince Associate Editor
L. Young Jr. Managing Editor
W. W. Simon Circulation Manager

MONDAY, JUNE 4, 1956

Terrible Pressures Push Jordan In Anti-West Camp

By JOSEPH ALSOP

AMMAN, Jordan. IT WAS THIS TIME of the old men, when 80 is no more than ripe for national leadership...

It was an experience to ponder, then, meeting the two young men almost at the moment when they concentrated supreme power in their own hands...

Paris post gave Ali Abu Nuwar the perfect opportunity to make friends with Hussein when the young King visited France...

riots, with Ali Abu Nuwar's strong encouragement, the Baghdad Pact project was hastily abandoned.

EXIT GLUBB That paved the way for the young King's personal coup d'etat, which he ordered Glubb Pasha to carry out...

Putting The Brakes On Hate Traffic

THE men who write and spread hate literature are pygmies all. Because hate and fear crowd their tiny comprehension...

The enemy is always a minority. It could as well be all the same Jackson as all Jews or all Catholics or all Negroes...

Quality Education Must Be Maintained

THE quality that supports the pride Tar Heels find in the Consolidated University of North Carolina is beginning to frazzle...

The problem goes beyond empty executives' seats. The real quality of education comes from the teachers, and a hundred teachers have left university units for better pay within the last two years...

'Ball? I Haven't Got Your Ball, Kid'

And Pop Goes The Politician, Too

IF YOU ever want to get even with a politician, snorts a cantankerous country editor of our acquaintance, "just quote him accurately..."

"Mr. President, I send to the amendment a desk and ask that it be stated..." Old timers were reminded of an even more delightful grammatical chop suey served up by Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. (R-Mass.)...

Innocents Abroad Globe-Trotting's Lost Magic

By ROBERT C. RUARK

SEEMS to me that they are taking most of the sport out of travel these days, not the least of which is betting against the weather...

It also dulls the senses, because a man trying to switch from escudo to pounds to lire to francs to marks to pesetas to gulden needs to keep his wits as well as Temple Fielding's money converter about him...

There is rarely even the fun of struggling with a foreign tongue now, because everybody seems to speak English. Foreign food all full of sauces? Nonsense. They have a Texas lunch and a milkshake stand nearly everywhere...

People's Platform

America Is Sailing Toward Socialism

A NATION can lose its soul and its identity, and what profit is there in factories and armies? A nation on its knees is safer and stronger than a nation under arms...

In America, silent, sinister forces are at work in our government, universities, radio, TV, endeavoring to lead us toward an atheistic, communistic state with "as dreadful certainty as though the leaders of the Kremlin themselves were charting our course..."

THE BEAST OF WADESBORO

A NEWS item from Bladen County the other day set us to wondering about what ever happened to the dreaded 'Beast of Bladen' which had everyone so excited a year or so ago...

about their wish that this varmint, whatever it is, will soon be killed. No one is more anxious for this result than Farmer Morton who reports that it destroyed his watermelon patch two years ago; that cowed damaged it last year; and that curiosity-seekers are currently trampling it to pieces in their rush to view the now-famous tracks...

Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round

THERE was more backstage huddling in the Kremlin's invitation to the Air Force to view the Soviet air show than usually happens in backstage-huddling Washington...

State Department Frowned On Junket

Senate. He chafed at being called the "Junior Senator," first tried to get Wiley Wheeler to Norway, now is trying to defeat him...

McCarty's Revenge The recent Republican slap-in-the-face of senior Sen. Alex Wiley of Wisconsin by the State Department...

Oil Money Wiley fought against the oil-gas lobby during the Senate debate on the natural gas bill, while McCarty voted for the bill...

Switch To Kersten McCarty then switched to Mark Catlin, a junior McCarty and speaker of the House...

Back To Davis

So while conventional delegates were still milling around in Milwaukee last week, McCarty et al switched back to Glenn Davis, promised him a $150,000 campaign fund and nominated him for the U. S. Senate.