CAPTURED IN VIRGINIA.

Leonidas McKnight, the Noted Mount Airy Robber.

HE NOW CONFESSES TO THE CRIME.

He Was Arrested Two Weeks Ago by the Police of Lynchgurg, Va—Taken to Surry County Jail Yesterday—Has Fears that he Will be Lynched—He is Now Very Penitent.

Leonidas McKnight, who robbed and attempted to murder Mrs. S. H. Taylor, an aged lady of Mt. Airy, on February 19, 1891, has been captured at last and is now in Surry county jail at Dobson.

McKnight was arrested two weeks ago by the police of Lynchburg, Va. He deni d being the right man, but the police held him until Dr. W. S. Taylor, son of the lady who was robbed, arrived in Lynchburg and identified him.

A requisition was secured from Governor Holt, and yesterday McKnight was brought from Virginia to Surry county to await his trial. He arrived in Greensboro yesterday morning and was lodged in jail while awaiting the Mt. Airy train.

The Greensboro Record says that on McKnight's arrest he strenuously objected to being jailed.

When McKnight found that Mr. Taylor was coming to identify him, he broke down and confessed that his name was Leonidas McKnight, and when Mr. Taylor arrived he made a full confession. He has all the time been under the impression, however, that he had killed Mrs. Taylor, and never knew to the contrary until since his arrest. When told that she had recovered, he seemed greatly relieved, and exclaimed: "Thank God, I am no murderer." He asked Mr. Taylor if he was to have a trial, and seemed to think he would be taken back and hanged at once without judge or jury.

McKnight has a brother living below Lynchburg, who employed a lawyer and tried to liberate him, but was not successful. When asked what he did with his share of the money, he refused to say, but stated that it had been a curse to him. He is very penitent now, of course, and read his Bible and prayed on the train all the way from Lynchburg. He told Mr. Taylor his mother died in an insane asylum, and it is likely he will try to set up insanity as a defence.

It is a clear case of burglary for which the penalty in this State is death.

McKnight's accomplice in the robbery was a young man named Taylor, a grandson of Mrs. S. H. Taylor. As will be remembered he was arrested, tried and sent to the penitentiary for a term of ten years. He is now serving out his sentence.

THE POLICE.

The Winston Force not Responsible for DeGraff's Escape.

The attempt of the Union Republican to throw the blame from the sheriff's shoulders on the Winston police has led to this statement:

"The Police Department of Winston is not responsible for the non-arrest of Degraff. In fact, we have never been called upon by the sheriff, though we are always ready to do our duty here. The sheriff has not even sent out notices to arrest DeGraff."

A gentleman who called at THE SENTINEL office today said that Republicans and Democrats, white and colored, are against Sheriff Teague because of his neglect of duty.

The Panorama Tonight.

Butt's most excellent exhibition of Bible story paintings was enjoyed by a large crowd last night.

Tonight he will give his temperance panorama, illustrating the life and end of the drunkard. He will show in one picture an assortment of snakes, which the Keeley Institute men in Greensboro the other day said was very true to life.

Clever ane Popular.

The Wilmington Star in its report of the State Encampment has this to say of a Winstonian: "Lieut. W. G. Gibson, Company A, Third Regiment, arrived Wednesday night. He was accompanied by his wife, and is stopping at Capt. Manning's place. Lieut. Gibson is one of the cleverest and most popular members of the Guard, and enjoys the encampments very much."

A Change of Firm.

E. Grossman, who has for the past 8 months been employed by Messrs. Greenbaum & Co., as salesman in the "Mammoth Clothing House," of this city, has just closed a contract with that firm. He has bought Greenbaum & Co's. entire stock of clothing, and will take charge as proprietor on September 1st.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Will be Called Next Week.

Chairman Buford, of the county executive committee, announces that he will issue an official call next week for Forsyth's Democratic county convention.

SENTINEL'S STORY CONFIRMED

Dr. Holcomb, of Rockford, Thinks He Saw DeGraff in His Store.

Dr. D. F. Holcomb, of Rockford, was in the city today. The Doctor says he lives in and owns what used to be the capital of Surry and Yadkin counties. He occupies the old courthouse used before the counties were devided and the capital removed to Dobson. Dr. Holcomb told a reporter he was confident that Peter DeGraff the supposed murderer of Ellen Smith, was in his store on last Saturday morning. Dr. Holcomb is not personally acquainted with DeGraff, but this man suited the description given by THE SENTINEL which he had read a few days previous. DeGraff called for canned beef and seemed restless and excited to such a degree that he attracted the attention of every one in the store.

Later on he boarded the train bound for Winston. The report published in THE SENTINEL of Monday stating that DeGraff came down from Wilkesboro Saturday and was seen by a man well acquainted with him, to get off the train in this city that evening convinced Dr. Holcomb that his supposition was correct.

Dr. Holcomb says THE SENTINEL is growing in favor with the people of his community with every issue and is one of the newsiest papers published in this part of the State.

THE TOBACCO MARKET.

This Week's Review of the Leaf Trade in Winston.

Receipts of leaf tobacco this week in Winston have been quite satisfactory, considering the season and the extreme condition of the weather. Some very good lots of choice leaf were offered, which were in good condition and well handled. In addition to this there was the usual amount of barn trash which makes its appearance on the market at this time of the year and which hardly pays for handling.

The Tobacco Journal says that prices on all the offerings of any quality this w ek were fully up. Several lots of fine old fillers were sold and brought stiff figures. Some stray lots of good mahogany wrappers also sold at outside prices. Manufacturers are still active bidders on every sale and never allow anything of good quality to go for less than its full value.

The first lot of new primings was sold this week.

The weather has been a degree better and tobacco is reported somewhat improved. Still the crop in a doubtful balance and only the future can tell what it will be. From present indications anything like a fine wrapper crop seems out of the question.

Trade in manufactured article remains good for mid summer weather. Leaf salesmen are crowding the manufacturing centers and offering to sell at reasonable prices.

The following stamp sale shows shipments for the past week:

| | |
|---|---|
| Monday | $ 3,802.20 |
| Tuesday | 2,390.1 |
| Wednesday | 1,211.17 |
| Thursday | 2,097.90 |
| Friday | 2,678.52 |
| Saturday | 1,871.31 |

The State Press on DeGraff.

From the South Port Leader.]

THE DAILY SENTINEL is after the sheriff of Forsyth county with a long stick, for alleged neglect of his duty in allowing a murderer to escape.

From the Alleghany Star.]

THE DAILY SENTINEL of the 27th handles the sheriff of Forsyth with gloves off for the non-arrest of Peter DeGraff, who is accused of murdering Ellen Smith in the suburbs of Winston two weeks ago. The paper calls the Sheriff a coward and asks why he does not resign.

From the Davie Times.]

Col. Peter DeGraff, Winston's Jesse James, who murdered Ellen Smith in that city several days ago, telegraphed us today from Winston that he would be over to the Masonic picnic next Thursday, if not sooner, and requested us to engage rooms at the hotel for him. He says that he intends to bring Sheriff Teague with him provided he can find him.

DeGraff Accepts.

A communication has reach THE SENTINEL office purporting to be an acceptance on the part of Peter DeGraff, of the challenge of Messrs. Vaughn and Matlock. It closed in these words: "My best regards for a long life and happy future are herewith tendered the Sheriff of Forsyth."

What They Say of The Sentinel.

Rev. W. A. Lutz says: "I feel very much gratified with the present management of the paper and hear it complimented on all sides."

H. E. Fries says: "I am pleased with the paper under its new management."

Chas. L Stewart: "I think THE SENTINEL is greatly improved and I enjoy it very much."

—The Centenary M. E. morning and evening Sunday Schools have consolidated, and will meet every Sunday morning at 9:30.

WILL BE REPRESENTED.

Winston-Salem Will Send Delegates to Morehead.

Winston-Salem will be represented at the meeting of the business men of North Carolina at Morehead City on the 10th instant.

The object of this meeting is to discuss matters and measures pertaining to the Old North State's future prosperity.

A party of Western and Northern capitalists who are prospecting for good investments will also be in attendance at this meeting as it is proposed to go into a permanent State organization.

Secretary Blair, of the Chamber of Commerce, has notified the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce that Winston-Salem will send delegates.

The following letter has been received by Mr. J. O. Plank, manager of the Atlantic hotel, at Morehead City:

Camp Hill, July 25, 1892.

Mr. Jno. O. Plank, Manager:

Myself and party want good rooms during the meeting of the boards of trade at your hotel. We are all patrons of yours at your several hotels, and will trust to you for our accommodation. We want the best the establishment affords. There will be eight or ten capitalists. Hope you will be present. Will want to talk with you. We may want to invest in some good hotel plants, &c. Who knows?

D. R. STRONG.

Address Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York City.
