

Shelby Police Sift Clues In Mystery Death Case

MERCHANT SHOT WITH .38 BULLETS
SHELBY—Police officials today were sifting through clues...

SHOT IN HEART
Coroner Ollie Harris has fixed the cause of death as a bullet wound in the heart...

Kentucky troopers escort five Negroes from Sturgis school (AP)

Tension Eases As Negro Students Go To Classes

By GEORGE HACKETT
STURGIS, Ky. (AP)—Seven Negro students returned to their classes for the second straight day...

her children in the all-white school. There were no National Guardsmen in Clay...

school at the end of the day and were sped home in automobiles. Adj. Gen. J. J. B. Williams...

Yesterday to keep out two of Mrs. James Gordon's children. A Negro Baptist minister who identified himself as a spokesman for the young Negro housewife...

Egypt Gets Warning In Canal Issue

LONDON (AP)—Britain and France warned Egypt today they are ready to use force if necessary to protect their rights in the Suez Canal.

A high political source said, however, Britain would lay the Suez dispute before the United Nations as the next step toward a solution.

THE DARK, IMPRESSIVE WATCHMAN of the North Carolina Blue Ridge, Grandfather Mountain near Linville, has been seen a favorite climbing ground for adventurers...

Atom Center Appeal Is Made For South

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP)—Southern governors were urged today to set up a southern center for atomic research...

atomic energy industrial research centers for the 16 states. "Polen did not mention it, but Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn is one of the institutions interested in getting such a center...

ONLY ONE HUNDRED?

OMAHA (AP)—Mrs. Sophie Adams had her 100th birthday yesterday. Her roommate, Mrs. Margaret Deerson, just smiled. Mrs. Deerson is 102.

BACK IN SCHOOL

At nearby Clay, Mrs. James Gordon re-enrolled her two grade school children at the all-Negro school at Providence.

ROCKS THROWN

Rocks were thrown when the Negro students emerged from school at the end of the day and were sped home in automobiles.

GOVERNOR'S OPINION

'Quiet Vote' Won For Pearsall Plan

By JULIAN SCHEER
Charlotte News Staff Writer
Gov. Luther H. Hodges today called the slumping Pearsall Plan turnout Saturday "the quiet vote."

HUNDREDS LISTEN

Some 500 persons filled the courthouse room and several hundred others listened by loud-speakers outside as Hodges urged them to sign petitions calling for formation of a Kentucky State Rights party.

Our Weather

Fair and warmer today, to night and Wednesday. Low this morning 49. Low tomorrow morning 53. High today 83. High yesterday 83. High tomorrow 83. Sunrise today 6:03 a.m.; sunset today 6:36 p.m.

ROPE TRICKSTER FOUND HANGED

New York Police Have Poser: Was It Suicide Or Homicide?

NEW YORK (AP)—A young seminary librarian who had a fascination with rope tricks and hanging was found dangling from a door hinge in his book-cluttered apartment yesterday.

OTHERS INTERESTED

Gov. Hodges, who talked to The News by telephone from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., where he is attending the Southern Governors' Conference, said other Southern leaders were talking about the size of the North Carolina vote.

ROYAL DILEMMA: Naming The Heir

NEW YORK (AP)—Grace Kelly came home today for the first time as Princess of Monaco. She disclosed that she and her prince husband have the same kind of problem that has beset many another husband and wife: What to name the baby they are expecting.

NO PREFERENCE

They did say they had no preference for a boy or girl, either could inherit the Monaco throne. Asked about plans for the baby, Grace replied: "I think if it is a boy the

GRACE KELLY

EVENING PRAYER

Dear Master, give us the spirit of good cheer and fellowship that we may bind up the broken-hearted, support the weak, give encouragement to the discouraged, and go about doing good in Thy name, Amen.

Select FOREMOST Milk Products at your favorite store.—Adv.