ANXIOUS MOMENTS came for Boston police yesterday, when they found that truck blocking the way to court of an armed convoy bearing Joseph (Speck) O'Keefe, star witness of the Brink's robbery trial. It turned out, however, that the driver was just delivering coal. (AP Wirephoto).

O'Keefe On Stand Brink's Case Star Tells Of Robbery

BOSTON (AP)—Joseph (Speck) O'Keefe blurted out a Superior Court jury he robbed the Brink's headquarters of $1,219,000 and the eight men on trial were with him. He testified as a state witness yesterday that the robbery was in the planning stage for more than two years.

Air Line Plans Strike Action

ATLANTA (AP)—Pilots and officials of Southern Airways plan to hold an informal meeting soon in an effort to head off a possible strike that might affect flight service to 11 cities in eight Southeastern states.

Scheme Delayed

The whole scheme, he continued, had to be delayed when it was learned Brink's was moving to a new location — on the second floor of the North Terminal Garage on the waterfront in Boston's teeming North End.

If saffracers got report cards, the visitor who stole over $5,000 at the local Pepsi-Cola plant Thursday night would get a straight "A."

Nasser Calls Big 3 Canal Plan 'Declaration of War'

GOP Fires, Adlai Moves

LONDON (AP)—The Western Big Three invited 15 nations today to attend a conference here next week for establishment of a world body to run Suez Canal traffic — a project branded by Egypt as a "declaration of war."

British envoys delivered the invitations on behalf of this country, France and the United States. All 15 backed a proposal at last month's London Suez conference to place the waterway under an international board linked to the United Nations, Egypt turned this down.

Board To Ban Negro Students

CLAY, Ky. (AP)—The Webster County School Board said last night it will not permit enrollment at the Clay School of three Negro children who have attended classes under National Guard protection.

Woman Killed By Bicycle

GASTONIA (AP)—A woman has died after being struck by a bicycle. The victim, Mrs. James Gordon, 42, was killed yesterday afternoon after she was struck by a young cyclist delivering newspapers.

Woman Conscious During Her Burial

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Wealthy Mrs. Ruth Evelyn Latham, 31, was quoted by police today as saying she was conscious when buried alive and naked by kidnappers.

Evening Prayer

Lord of Life, teach me to walk with Thee in busy, trying ways, unsullied and in bold but constraining obedience to unhalloved willfulness.
