Principles? Yes, But What Are They?

TO PROCLAIM loudly that you believe in "democratic principles" is one thing. To know precisely what you're talking about is quite another.

Fair Goes Must Think A Little Evil

FAIR time approaches, and with it the possibilities of unpleasantness in what should be a pleasant season.

To The Woodshed With Wire Fakers

ONE OF THE GRUBBIEST pages yet opened in the history of political lobbying involves the shower of faked telegrams that rained on Washington while the natural gas bill was being debated last year.

Moon-Men Pose Perilous Days For All

SOMEHOW this "reach the moon in 20 years" talk doesn't quite give us that onward and upward feeling.

People's Platform

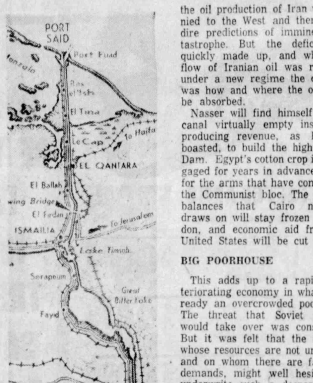

Jefferson Davis Didn't Free From Union Forces
Charlottesville, Va., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy, spent a week while fleeing from the North-East Forces.

'You Ain't Nuthin' But A Houn'—Down Boy!—Dawg'

The Cost Is Less Than War Suez To Become Dry Ditch?

WASHINGTON—The Western powers have their way, the Suez Canal will become a dry ditch. Plans are being hastily developed not only by government but by business for the long-term as well as the short-term bypass of the Suez waterway.

These considerations were weighed in the urgent discussions in the course of which top policymakers of the Eisenhower administration agreed to the device of the users' association for a show-down which would put Nasser in the position of violating the canal treaty of 1888.

Reflections On Segregation: 'Po Bokra' In Pellagra Belt
LONDON—I read and read about the racial goings on in Tennessee, where my wife was born, and I am just a little horrified with what I read.

GET OUT AND STAY OUT

THEY say in the Middle West that on a hot night you can hear the corn grow. This is subject to dispute.

THE GAZA STRIP
The word of greeting in Israel is "shalom." The word of greeting in Arabic is "Salaam." Both mean "peace."

Drew Pearson's Merry Go-Round

THEY say in the Middle West that on a hot night you can hear the corn grow. This is subject to dispute.

They Say Peace But There Is No Peace

THEY say in the Middle West that on a hot night you can hear the corn grow. This is subject to dispute.

Will Jonas Display A 'Bag Of Tricks'?

MOORESVILLE, N.C., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Will Jonas, who is going to try to turn the WBT-TV program, we're interested in the comparison of 32 and 52.

Ministers Assuming Role Of The Blue Ox

CHARLOTTE, N.C., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Christian preachers who appealed to the City Council for the reinstatement of the archaic "blue law" Mayor Van Every presented a logical analysis of the operation of democratic government on both the local and the national levels.

Settle Blue Laws By A Referendum

CHARLOTTE, N.C., Sept. 19.—(AP)—I think that it is a sad reflection on ourselves to admit this could be done. Perhaps a little soul searching on their part would reveal that they are not offering the people the soul-filling satisfaction that a referendum should get when he attends church.

LONDON—I read and read about the racial goings on in Tennessee, where my wife was born, and I am just a little horrified with what I read.

Friendly Arabs

THOUGH Arabs, the Bedouins are friendly to Israeli rule, give important intelligence information on the movement of Egyptian troops.

Mayor Was Right To Resist Pressure

CHARLOTTE, N.C., Sept. 19.—(AP)—The mayor broke his word while the minister was at summer camp with the Army reserves.
