 That's when Carlyle Stanley, 23, and Marvin Fritchel, 29, discovered a coincidence. Their wives had the same name—Peggy Lucille.
 The two sailors laughed, slapped each other on the back and reached for their wallets. They stopped laughing then. The pictures they produced were identical.

Fritchel, husband No. 2, was the first to act. He obtained an annulment last December. Stanley got a divorce Thursday after relating his shipboard discovery in Superior Court.

 The incidents were fabricated, said the doctor.

COMMITTEE FOR FAIR TAXATION

Saturday evening at 7:30 P.M. the committee for fair taxation will hold a very important meeting at the Graham Court house.
 An up to date report will be given on the re-valuation program that is taking place in Alamance County.
 Attend this meeting and determine for yourself if your tax dollars are being wisely spent or wasted.
 It is time for all citizens to know the truth about how their tax money is being spent. The county sends you a bill for your tax each year. Why do they not send you a statement on how your money is spent.

 Perhaps 50 white youths arrived at Woolworth around 10 a.m. and took over most seats. They kept these, alternating with white customers, except for seven seats which Negro youths occupied soon after entering the store.
 At Kress no effort was made to hold the seats, but only a dozen Negro students occupied scattered seats in the half of the lunch area unoccupied by whites.
 Today's crowd was orderly and quiet. A large number of policemen and plainclothesmen were at both stores.
 The Negroes, most of them students at Greensboro A & T College started their demonstration Monday. Each day they take seats at the lunch counter of the F. W. Woolworth Co. store. They are ig-
