42-Yard Field Goal Gives UNC 16-14 Win Over Devils

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — Max Chapman was a fearless runner as a schoolboy but Thursday he kicked the University of North Carolina to its best football record and first bowl appearance since the days of Charlie Justice.

The sophomore halfback from Banner Elk, N.C., booted a 42-yard field goal with 33 seconds remaining to bring the Tar Heels a 16-14 victory over Duke, a share of the Atlantic Coast Conference championship with N.C. State and a trip to the Gator Bowl.

North Carolina's 8-2 final mark is its best since 1948 when Justice led the Tar Heels to a 9-1-1 season and into the Sugar Bowl.

Both UNC and N.C. State finished with 6-1 conference and 8-2 over-all records. The loss dropped Duke into a final tie with Clemson at 5-2 and 5-4-1.

Clemson struggled to a 24-20 decision over South Carolina in their 61st meeting and Maryland dropped Virginia to the cellar with a 21-6 victory in their finale.

North Carolina accepted the Gator Bowl bid immediately after the victory at Durham. Possible opponents for the Tar Heels are Florida, Syracuse and Georgia Tech.

This will be UNC's fourth bowl appearance. The Tar Heels bowed 20-10 to Georgia in the 1947 Sugar Bowl, 14-6 to Oklahoma in 1949 Sugar Bowl and 27-13 to Rice in the 1950 Cotton Bowl.

Chapman, who shredded defenses in Virginia's prep league during three seasons at Episcopal High School, booted his winner on fourth down after Duke had thrown UNC quarterback Junior Edge for a loss.

"We knew Max had plenty of power. It was just a question of accuracy. Our extra point kicker, Dave Braine, just couldn't kick that far," explained North Carolina Coach Jim Hickey.

Duke whipped the Tar Heels by the identical 16-14 score last year and won with a field goal. The year before, the Blue Devils won 6-3 with two field goals.

Clemson scored first but fell behind 14-7 as Dan Reeves passed five yards to Billy Nies for one South Carolina TD and Jim Rogers tossed 10 yards to Charles Williams for another.

The Tigers rallied on Hugh Mauldin's seven-yard scoring run and a 35-yard field goal by Frank Pearce in the third quarter. Hal Davis' five-yard touchdown sprint for the Tigers offset a South Carolina score in the fourth period on Reeves' four-yard pass to Marty Rosen.

South Carolina finished with a 1-8-1 record and five straight losses. Maryland completed a 2-5, 3-7 season behind fullback Jerry Fishman, quarterback Dick Shiner and a strong running attack.

Hockey Player Undergoes Knife For Injury

CHICAGO (AP)—Johnny McKenzie, right wing of the Chicago Black Hawks, underwent surgery early today for removal of a ruptured spleen suffered during the Black Hawk-Toronto Maple Leafs National Hockey League game Thursday night.

Dr. Myron Tremain, team physician, removed the spleen at Henrotin Hospital and said McKenzie was resting very well.

McKenzie, 27, fell to the ice during the first period of the contest in Chicago after being checked by two Toronto players.

Dr. Tremain said McKenzie should be back in action by Feb. 1.

PETE ROSE, Cincinnati Reds second baseman, was voted the National League Rookie of the Year for 1963. The 22-year-old native of Dayton, Ohio, had 170 hits and scored 101 runs in the last baseball season.

Cleveland has two highly regarded rookie outfielders coming up next season. They are Bob Chance and Ruthford Salmon who batted .325 at Denver.

Rookie pitcher Tommy John of the Cleveland Indians won nine games at Charleston and six at Jacksonville last season.

Catawba, Elon Share Title In Carolinas Conference

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — Catawba and Elon share the 1963 Carolinas Conference football championship, the first time either has owned even part of the title since 1947.

This is also the first time Lenoir Rhyne has not won it since 1954.

Catawba earned its share with a 13-0 Thanksgiving victory over Lenoir Rhyne, beating the Bears for the first time since 1954 and assuring them their first losing season (4-6) that year.

Catawba and Elon finished with 5-1 conference records, edging Appalachian (4-1) by a half game.

Catawba won the championship in 1947 when the league was still the old North State Conference. Elon last won the title in 1941. It became the Carolinas Conference in 1961.

Another conference member, Newberry, bowed to Presbyterian, 14-7, in their annual Thanksgiving battle. Newberry broke even with a 5-5 season and Presbyterian finished at 3-6-1.

Catawba scored both touchdowns on long plays, the first being a 33-yard razzle dazzle that began with a pass from Bill McDevitt to halfback Sammy Liberatore who then lateraled to Sam Boyd. The Indians' other score came on a 34-yard pass from McDevitt to end Bucky Pope.

Lenoir Rhyne managed to salvage one title from an otherwise disappointing season. Tailback Craig Wardlaw won the conference rushing title, edging Catawba's Brian Applefield, 632 yards to 633.

Quarterback Leighton Grant and halfback Charles Haygood combined on a 57-yard pass play in the fourth quarter to give Presbyterian possession of the coveted bronze derby at least until the teams play again next fall.

VPI Rips VMI 35-0 To Get Southern Conference Title

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — Virginia Tech's football team, basking in the glow of its first Southern Conference championship, looked around for post-season worlds to conquer today—and found none in evidence.

In the wake of Thursday's 35-0 conquest of VMI which gave them a heady 8-2 record, the Techmen asked: "Anyone for bowling?" Apparently, though, no one was listening.

Coach Jerry Claiborne said so far as he knows Tech hasn't even received a feeler for a bowl appearance. Then, shedding his usual reserve, he added:

"But I think we've got a quarterback (Bob Schweickert) and a team that can go out and play with a lot of people. Schweickert was just great. There are no ifs, ands or buts about it."

On this latter point Claiborne wouldn't get any argument from the crowd of 27,900 that saw Tech ruined VMI's title ambitions at Roanoke.

Schweickert, not content with smashing conference records for one season in rushing and total offense, broke VMI's back with an 82-yard touchdown punt return in the third period.

It was the first time he had been used at safety—but, said Claiborne, it won't be the last. Said the Tech coach:

"We'd been planning to do it all year but were scared he might get hurt. We started to do it at West Virginia (Tech won 28-3). We definitely decided to do it Thursday. We'll do it a lot next year."

For the day, Schweickert ran for 72 yards, hit four of six passes for 58 yards and two touchdowns, and punted seven times for a 43.9-yard average. He ended the year with a conference-record 1,326 yards' total offense, of which a record 839 came via rushing.

"Remarkable," said VMI Coach John McKenna. "He's not only great, he's lucky, and that's a tough combination to beat. Matter of fact, it's the stuff heroes are made from."

Curiously, McKenna's Keydets outgained Tech 417 yards to 176 and ran 81 plays to Tech's 39. But, said Claiborne, "we came up with the big play."

Four other conference teams also closed their seasons Thursday.

William and Mary (4-4, 4-6) got 229 passing yards and two TD passes from Dan Henning and upended Richmond (2-2-1, 3-6-1) by a 29-6 count in the 72nd renewal of their ancient rivalry.

Texas Virtually Wraps Up National Gridiron Crown

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer — The phone jangled. Texas Coach Darrell Royal picked it up.

"Was it too much for you to watch all the time?" he asked. "Well, Nellie, I wouldn't have watched it either if I hadn't had to."

The caller was the wife of John Connally, talking from the hospital where her husband is recuperating from his bullet wounds.

Mrs. Connally was calling to offer the governor's congratulations to the Cotton Bowl bound Texas team, "which had just wrapped up its first perfect season in 43 years and virtually clinched the national championship. Only minutes had elapsed since the lukewarm Longhorns had nipped Texas A&M 15-13, Duke Carlisle cracking over the one with 1:19 remaining to close out a drive that kept its momentum despite a pass interception.

Texas already had clinched a Cotton Bowl berth, but two other bowl spots were filled on a beefy Thanksgiving Day program—Illinois grabbing its first Rose Bowl assignment in 13 years and North Carolina accepting a Gator Bowl offer.

The Illini won the Big Ten Conference title and the bowl berth with a deceptive defensive formation revolving around Dick Butkus that helped throttle Michigan State 13-0. The Tar Heels edged Duke 16-14 on a 42-yard field goal by Max Chapman with 33 seconds remaining.

Five major college teams now have firm bowl commitments—Texas, Illinois, North Carolina, Nebraska and LSU. Nebraska previously nailed an Orange Bowl spot and LSU a place in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Other bowl assignments will come from Saturday games, with most interest centering on the West Coast Rose Bowl situation. Two games hold the key—Washington State at Washington and UCLA at Southern California. A league vote will decide the entry.

Also spotlighted on Saturday's schedule is the 38th meeting of Harvard and Yale. In other games bearing on bowl bids, Auburn is at Alabama, Georgia Tech at Georgia, Mississippi at Mississippi State and Pittsburgh at Miami, Fla., for a night game.

One other game Thursday may have had bowl ramifications. Syracuse, looking for a bid, finished an 8-2 campaign by defeating Notre Dame 14-7.

In all, four conference crowns were wrapped up during the day. Illinois grabbed the Big Ten. Texas won the Southwest, North Carolina tied North Carolina State in the Atlantic Coast and Virginia Tech nailed the Southern title by walloping VMI 35-20.

In other games, West Virginia blanked Furman 38-7, Minnesota blasted Wisconsin 14-0, Cornell defeated Penn 17-8, Maryland whipped Virginia 21-6, Columbia beat Rutgers 35-23, Clemson edged South Carolina 24-20, William & Mary belted Richmond 29-6 and Miami of Ohio nipped Cincinnati 21-19.

Oakland Safer Than Ever In AFL Western Division

DENVER (AP)—The Oakland Raiders are safer than ever in second place in the Western Division after beating last-place Denver 26-10 Thursday in their American Football League game.

The contest marked the start of a revised season-ending schedule resulting from last weekend's postponements because of President Kennedy's assassination.

Kansas City plays at New York City, Houston at San Diego and Buffalo at Boston in other AFL games this Sunday.

Oakland, trailing 3-2 at half-time, stung Denver with two quick third-period touchdowns. The game wound up Denver's home campaign. Oakland is 7-4 and Denver's 2-8-1.

PRACTICING SCOUTING

NOGALES, Ariz. (AP) — A worried mother reported to police that her two sons, 10 and 14 years old, had not returned from a Boy Scout meeting.

"The front door is stuck," she said, "and they may think we're not home."

Police found the boys in the back yard, tucked away in their sleeping bags.

Clemson Wins 24-20 Missed First Downs Spell Defeat For South Carolina

By DEL BOUTH COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — A pair of missed first downs spelled downfall for upset-minded South Carolina in its 24-20 loss to Clemson here Thursday.

"We had to gamble," South Carolina coach Marvin Bass said of the second half misses by inches after Clemson had tied the game 14-14.

Each time, Clemson went on to score, first with a go-ahead 35-yard field goal by Frank Pearce, then with an insurance touchdown by Hal Davis on a 6-yard run.

The game began like a comedy of errors, with Clemson fumbling the ball away twice to South Carolina, and South Carolina returning the favor three times in the first half, South Carolina also sandwiched in a pass interception.

But Clemson settled down in the second half, moving 70 yards after quarterback Tommy Bell's pass interception to score on a 7-yard dash by Hugh Mauldin, and then setting up a 35-yard field goal by Pearce after South Carolina failed on fourth down at its own 43.

Clemson's 64-yard first period touchdown march was topped by a 7-yard touchdown run by Jimmy Howard, son of Clemson coach Frank Howard.

South Carolina jumped back to score twice, Quarterback Dan Reeves passing 5 yards to end Billy Nies for the first one, and quarterback Jim Rogers tossing 10 yards to halfback Charles Williams for the other.

South Carolina got its final touchdown on Reeve's 4-yard throw to halfback Marty Rosen. A try for a two-point conversion pass failed.
