

PRESS IS URGED TO BE CAUTIOUS ON CUBAN NEWS

WASHINGTON, AP — The White House has asked newspapers and television and radio stations to be cautious and discreet in publishing information on the armed forces during the Cuban crisis.

Press Secretary Pierre Salinger issued a memorandum Wednesday containing 12 matters of information which it considered "vital to our national security."

The memorandum said: "During the current tense international situation, the White House feels that the publication of such information is contrary to the public interest. We ask public information media of all types to exercise caution and discretion in the publication of such information."

REQUEST NOT BINDING The document said the Defense Department will release no information on the 12 subjects and listed them as guidelines for the nation's news media.

A White House spokesman said the guideline memorandum was in no sense censorship—even voluntary censorship. He said the request was not binding on any media.

The 12 points covered these subjects:

- 1. Employment of strategic or tactical forces, including types of equipment, command centers and detection systems;
- 2. Estimates of U.S. capability of destroying targets and penetrating defenses;
- 3. Intelligence estimates of targets;
- 4. Intelligence estimates of enemy plans or capabilities, or information that would give a clue to the success of U.S. intelligence with respect to Cuba and the Communist bloc;
- 5. Details on movement of U.S. forces, vessels, aircraft, missiles and ammunition;
- 6. The degree of alert of military forces;
- 7. Location of aircraft;
- 8. Emergency dispersal plans for aircraft and units;
- 9. Estimates of vulnerability;
- 10. New data on missile distribution and readiness, or estimates of capability of missile forces;
- 11. Details of command and control systems including estimates of ability to survive attack;
- 12. Estimates of airlift or sealift capabilities.

The memorandum to editors and radio and television news directors said the government may announce the movement of military units after the transfers have been made. It also said the presence of aircraft that can be observed by the public may be confirmed.

Editors who may doubt whether publication of certain information would breach the guidelines were told to get in touch with the Defense Department news desk. The memorandum said any advice given "will be on an advisory basis and not considered finally binding."

Salinger met Wednesday with representatives of the wire services and TV-radio networks and discussed what he termed the problem of national security information.

White House officials said organizations of foreign newsmen would be called in for a similar conference within a day or so.

Salinger was represented as feeling that it would be useless to take up the subject with Soviet newsmen. The White House took the position that much information reaching the Soviet Union is obtained from U.S. newspapers.

People In The News

The grand duchess of Luxembourg has been asked by President Kennedy to postpone a state visit to the United States with her son, Prince Felix, scheduled to begin next Tuesday. Kennedy sent a message from Washington urging the grand duchess to put off her visit until after "the present tensions have eased."

The archbishop of Canterbury on a good-will tour of Anglican institutions in this country, said in Baltimore, he is sure people throughout the free world sympathize with the United States in the move to blockade Cuba.

James H. Webb, administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said in Washington he is confident the United States can achieve a manned landing on the moon "well before this decade is out."

"We are making very rapid progress in launch vehicle and spacecraft development," he told members of the European Broadcasting Union visiting the United States.

TRANSIENT IS GIVEN LIFE

HAYS, Kan. (AP)—Harry Jack Bloomer, 29, a transient from Ohio and Pennsylvania, was convicted of first degree murder last night and sentenced to life imprisonment for slaying of a marshal.

The district court jury of 11 men and one woman returned the verdict after deliberating about four hours. Bloomer formerly lived in Youngstown, Ohio, and Benton and Bloomsburg, Pa.

He shot Al Claycamp, 37, marshal of Wakeeney, Kan., last July 14. The jury also convicted him on a charge of felonious wounding for the shooting of Sheriff Chet McAtee, 55, of Trego County, Kan.

Bloomer's 17-year-old companion, Shirley Nixon, a runaway from Wilsonville, Neb., testified for the prosecution last week. She is confined to the Kansas Industrial School for Girls as a juvenile delinquent.

The sheriff and marshal were shot after they picked up Bloomer and Shirley, who were hitch-hiking. Bloomer's attorney, Delmas Haney of Hays, contended the state failed to prove malice, deliberation and premeditation. Bloomer could have been sentenced to hang.

POLITICS Republican

CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—Rep. William W. Scranton, Republican candidate for governor, says if Democrat Richardson Dilworth is elected governor a new attempt would be made to Annex Bucks, Chester, Delaware and Montgomery Counties to Philadelphia.

Scranton made the statement Wednesday night during rallies in Chester and Springfield Township which capped a 12-hour tour of Delaware County. He was accompanied by Rep. James E. Van Zandt, Republican candidate for the Senate and other statewide candidates.

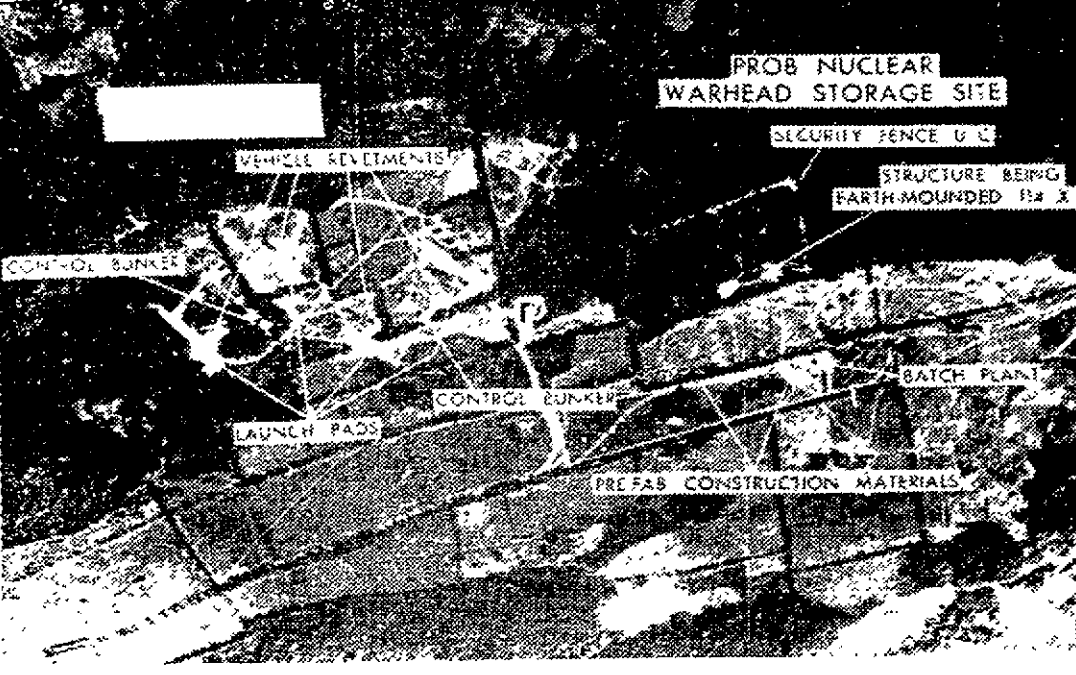

Van Zandt also had a busy day ahead of them today. They were invited to New York for a special congressional briefing on the Cuban crisis and planned to be back in Pittsburgh tonight to attend an Allegheny County Republican rally at which former President Eisenhower is scheduled to speak.

Scranton also was scheduled for a joint appearance with Dilworth in Pittsburgh tonight before the Pennsylvania Association of School Directors and School Superintendents.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $23,000 loan to Milford, Pa., to help plan construction of 120 low-rent homes, 60 of them for elderly persons, was announced Wednesday by the Public Housing Administration.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Some 1,000 bails of cotton waste labeled "duffy of Russia" will be sent back to Antwerp, the last port of call. Longshoremen refused Wednesday to unload the cotton waste from the Norwegian freighter P. Pack Swan because it is a Russian cargo.

POLITICS Democrat

ALTOONA, Pa. (AP)—U.S. Sen. Joseph S. Clark, a Philadelphia Democrat campaigning for re-election, invaded the home territory of his Republican opponent, U.S. Rep. James Van Zandt Wednesday and drew a surprisingly enthusiastic reception.

A capacity crowd of more than 5,000 filled Altoona's Frankstown Armory to hear Clark and Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., while another 1,000 braved cold weather and a light snowfall to hear the speeches on loudspeakers outside the hall Wednesday night.

Clark noted that the nation is rallying behind President Kennedy in the Cuban crisis, but he added, "There will still be an election on Nov. 6 and though we may be united on Cuba, there are many other issues that divide the parties and the candidates."

Then, running through the differences between himself and Van Zandt, Clark said he has supported or introduced in the Senate measures for area redevelopment, job retraining and public works.

Van Zandt, he said, "cannot point to a single piece of major legislation on this or any other subject, that bears his name."

Clark said he favors health care for the aged under Social Security while Van Zandt has avoided taking a stand on it.

"And he has a record of appalling bad judgment on many other issues, foreign and domestic, over the years," Clark added.

CONDUCTOR IS HELD IN DEATH

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—Police were holding a Pennsylvania Railroad conductor today for questioning in the fatal tavern shooting of another PRR conductor.

Officers said Steve Pavlovich, 27, was taken into custody Wednesday shortly after John R. Cochran, 34, was shot to death in a tavern. Both were Erie residents.

The two men, described as friends, entered the tavern together and sat at the bar. Other patrons told police that there had been no argument and that suddenly a shot was heard and Cochran slumped to the floor.

First police on the scene said Pavlovich was still seated and a pistol was lying on the bar near him.

Cochran was dead on arrival at St. Vincent Hospital with a bullet wound of the head.
