GALLAGHER'S

Incredible drive, money, gregariousness, a face a television camera can love, friends in the right places—all these help.

If you have a name the voters already know, you may find the early stages of your road wonderfully smooth.

MANY EXAMPLES

This always has been true in U.S. politics, but rarely have we had so many shining examples.

Look at the famous names that will be on the ballots Nov. 6: Kennedy, Lodge, Roosevelt, Rockefeller, Morgenthau, Long.

As usual, Massachusetts leads the familial list.

In the Senate race it's Edward M. Kennedy, 30, who has a brother for President and another brother for attorney general. He's running against George Lodge, 34, whose father was a senator and an ambassador to the United Nations.

HUGHES ON LIST

Another famous name was bumped off Edward J. McCormack Jr., whose Uncle John is speaker of the House, was beaten in the primaries. A fourth famous name was added to the senatorial list: H. Stuart Hughes, grandson of Charles Evans Hughes, who barely lost the presidency to Woodrow Wilson, is running as an independent.

Move on to New York.

It's true that Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller bears a famous name, but until recently—say, in the last quarter of a century—a name so synonymous with riches would have been looked upon as a liability.

HAVE BACKGROUND

Democrats, hoping to get in a few blows at whatever presidential ambitions Rockefeller has, have chosen Robert M. Morgenthau to oppose him.

Morgenthau is relatively unknown, but he has a fine political name. His father, Henry Jr., was Franklin D. Roosevelt's secretary of the Treasury and his grandfather was Woodrow Wilson's ambassador to Turkey.

Speaking of FDR, his son, James, seeks re-election as a representative from California.

SOME MISLEADING

Then there are the Longs, a magical name in Louisiana. Willis W. Long hopes to be elected to the House and Russell B. Long

FOOD SUPPLIES ARE PLENTIFUL OVER WEEKEND

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Housewives will find plentiful supplies this week of nearly any food they desire. If they search hard enough they may find as many bargains as there are foods. This is the harvest season.

There are a number of foods that stand out this week either because of their availability or their slightly lower prices. By a happy coincidence pork and apples are among these.

The two foods, which traditionally accompany each other, are listed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture in its weekly report of good buys.

Another seasonal and palatable combination is also in growing demand and availability as Thanksgiving approaches. Cranberries are listed by the department as plentiful. Turkeys are priced as low as they have been in recent weeks.

Among other good buys over the nation:

Canned Maine sardines, fish sticks, grapefruits, pears, cauliflower, potatoes, squash, mushrooms, spinach. With October cheese festival in full swing, the dairy counters are offering a wide selection of these good protein sources.

Also listed as among the best buys in some areas are anise, artichokes, endive-escarole, butternut squash, avocados, Boston and Romaine lettuce, huck roast, round roast and lamb.

expects to be re-elected to the Senate.

On the other side of the political fence: Robert Taft, son of Sen. Robert A. Taft and grandson of President William Howard Taft, hopes to be elected representative at large from Ohio.

Of course, a name can be misleading, too.

A candidate for Congress in Minnesota is Harding Coolidge Noblitt. Well-known Republican political names, Harding and Coolidge, but Noblitt is trying as a Democrat.

POLITICS Democrat

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rep. William J. Green Jr., Democratic city chairman, says the Cuban situation "is a situation that President Kennedy has inherited from the Eisenhower administration."

"I'm one guy who'll put the monkey on the back of the guy it belongs to, and that's President Eisenhower," Green told a news conference Wednesday night.

"Certainly things should have been done before this time. This is a situation that President Kennedy has inherited from the Eisenhower administration."

hower administration."

Eisenhower was not immediately available for comment.

Asked if he still supported Richardson D. Worth, Democratic candidate for governor, Green said:

"What do you guys want me to do—stand on a soapbox and yell 'I'm for Dilworth?' Dilworth is head and shoulders above Scranton (Rep. William W. Scranton, Republican candidate). He'd be 10 times a better governor than Scranton."

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The campaigning Richardson Dilworth turned their attention to Western Pennsylvania today after a heartening sendoff by their adopted hometown of Philadelphia.

The Democratic gubernatorial candidate and his wife, Ann, plus Wednesday night, despite planned to stump two days in Pittsburgh and Washington. The candidate sat back in his car as he pulled away from the rally—South Philadelphia—with the voters this year.

One of the highlights of Dilworth's itinerary was a scheduled joint appearance tonight with his Republican opponent, Rep. William W. Scranton, before the Pennsylvania Association of School Directors and School Secretaries in Pittsburgh. The two candidates engaged in a bitter name calling, finger-pointing clash last Saturday night following their second debate in Scranton.

Dilworth and his wife received enthusiastic greetings at two street corner rallies in Philadelphia Wednesday night, despite the day's quotient of iron

CHEROKEE DRAMA

CHEROKEE, N. C. (AP) — The Cherokee Indian drama "Unto These Hills" played before a paid attendance of 129,301 during the 1962 summer season here. Carol White, general manager of the Cherokee Historical Association which sponsors the outdoor drama, said in its 13 seasons "Unto These Hills" has attracted 61,882 persons.
