

RUSSIA AGAIN TELLS WEST TO LEAVE BERLIN

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD
BERLIN (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko was reported Wednesday to have renewed the Communist demand that Western troops get out of Berlin and called "or full recognition of East German sovereignty."

The official East German news agency ADN said Gromyko made the statements in a speech to a crowd in East Berlin after he toured the wall dividing the city.

Standing on a truck as an improvised platform, Gromyko pledged that the Soviet Union would never allow the "slightest violation of the sovereign rights" of East Germany, ADN said.

Gromyko arrived Tuesday in E. Berlin from New York and had talks with the Communist chief of East Germany, Walter Ulbricht, and Foreign Minister Lothar Bolz. The visit was announced as a stopover on his way to Moscow.

AWAIT RED MOVE
There have been fears in the West that the Soviet Union might make some move against West Berlin as retaliation for the quarantine of Cuba.

Soviet tanks, artillery and motorized units were observed on the move outside Berlin during the night, West Berlin police reported.

They said travelers across East Germany saw Soviet units on the autobahn, the highway connecting Berlin with the West, and on the road from Berlin to Hamburg. The largest group was reported around Nauen, a small town about 10 miles west of Berlin.

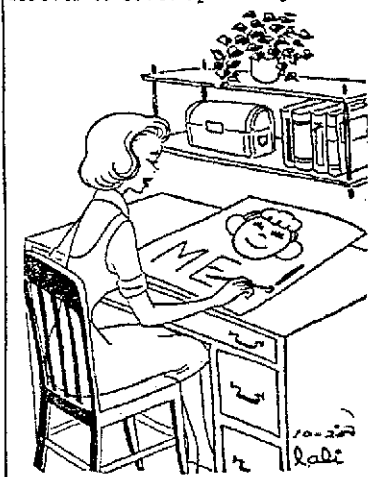

Western Allied military sources said the troops appeared to be units returning to bases from training exercises.

A fog that hampered Gromyko's look into West Berlin helped seven East Germans flee during the night, police reported.

Visibility was poor along the 101 miles of concrete and barbed wire surrounding West Berlin. Police did not disclose any details of the escape into West Berlin.

A Lovelier You

By SUE MILLER
R SEEING. A young writes: My ears are hideous—too big and too stick-out'n. So I guess I am doomed forever to cover-up hairstyles. But I am hoping against hope you know some secret disguise that would let me wear off-the-face styles, like the ones I see in fashion pictures this fall. Do you?

The Answer: Disguising size is easy. Simply arrange the hair so it dips just a bit over the top of the ear, and wear out-sized, important-looking earrings. Bulky shapes, in covering so much ear, seem to dwarf it. A handsome design draws attention to itself, instead of to the ear.

Fashion plays along with this deceit in offering enormous metal disks, pearl buttons and bead clusters for daytime wear. Selections for evening include mammoth wings, sprays and flower mobiles of gem-like stones. The only taboo is the pendant earring. Its dangle would seem to lengthen the ear.

To aid and abet the illusion of decreased size, apply a little powder base to the ears at make-up time. After the face is filmed, whisk the residue left on your hands onto the shell and lobes of the ears. That way, the color and finish of the face and ears blend.

Now let us discuss the "stick-out" problem. It can be solved by plastic surgery—an operation that is not very complicated and should not be prohibitively costly. Another measure is pressing the ears to the head via double-fa. cellophane tape. The results, although temporary, are convincing—particularly if the device is backed by a fluff of hair. Thus the ears are brought into beauty's fold.

Medical Aid To Aged Serves Fewer Clients

HARRISBURG (AP)—Delegates to the annual convention of the Hospital Association of Pennsylvania were told Wednesday that the state's medical assistance for the aged is serving fewer clients than first estimated.

William B. Tollen, commissioner of public assistance, said that during the first nine months of operation 35,071 applications were received from persons 65 years of age and over. Payments were authorized for 20,849 cases, (or 60 per cent) in which eligibility was established. A total of 10,257 (29 per cent) applicants were turned down as ineligible, or they withdrew their applications, Tollen said. The other 3,965 (11 per cent) were in various stages of processing as of Sept. 30.
