in California, while "Meet the Press" (NBC, 6-6:30) will be m-Dear Sir:

To the undersigned, the forthcoming election is a very serious affair. Statistics from the Bureaucrats of the State of Pennsylvania have separated its population into two camps: "rural" and "urban," with 55% to the latter. By rural is meant every dweller in this state not dwelling in a large city.

Purpose of the division is to provide a basis for the asscr-tion that the "rural" area, with a smaller percentage of the people, dominates the state legislature and to secure sup-port at the polls for the Demo-cratic Party, which has in every way proclaimed its bias in favor of the city voter.

This policy of turning brother against brother for the sake of political overlordship is a comparatively recent innovation which supersedes the timehonored American principle "all men are created that equal." It is a very disintergrating principle and one that is fraught with potential discord.

In order to combat the extension of so miscluevous a blow to the unity and tranquillity of Pennsylvanians, we are convinced that the election of candidate for governor, William W. Scranton is an essential step toward restoring a situation of justice and amity to city and country dweller alıke.

Scranton has pledged his faith to be a governor of ALL the people; whereas Dilworth has spent practically every moment of his campaign in the large cities, promising the voters all sorts of benefits, to be largely paid for by the peo-ple of the rural districts. There is no recourse for rural citizens, Republican and Democrat alike, but to work for and vote for the election of Serantion and Van Zandt and to that end we announce our association into a League of Rural Voters for Bill Scranton and Jimmy Van Zandt, Respectfully,
